Big Soybean Crop Overtaxes County's Storage Facilities; Emergency Measures Needed

AAA Offers Farmers Prefabricated Bins as Partial Solution; Year's Crop Over Million Bushels.

One of the most critical grain storage problems in the county's history faced Marion county farmers today as a record-breaking soybean crop overflowed elevators and farm storages, and even piled up on wagons and trucks.

Public attention was directed to the situation today by Frank Montgomery, Marion county AAA chairman, who declared that prefabricated storage bins which the AAA has brought in apparently are the only means by which farmers will be able to deal with the emergency situation. The bins are available for sale to farmers on a non-profit basis and were provided only after all usual commercial forms of storage were exhausted not only here but throughout this part of the country, he said.

He said materials for 35 of the bins, each with a capacity of 830 bushels are on hand in the county, stored at Morral, LaRue and Prospect. Two men can assemble one of them in a day's time, and the units contain all needed materials excepting the foundation.

In addition, the AAA has already erected 37 bins, each holding 1,500 bushels, at various points in the county, including Waldo, Prospect, Morral, LaRue, Caledonia and Marion, and these are practically filled now, Mr. Montgomery said.

However the available storage facilities, even with the 35 bins on hand for sale to farmers will be inadequate to deal with the huge crop.

Causes of Problem

Today's critical storage situation has been caused by several factors.

One is the fact that the government asked farmers to increase greatly their soybean crops this year because the war shut off imports of foreign oils and the bean crop has to make up much of the difference. The government asked for a 50 per cent increase over 1941. Marion county farmers responded by more than doubling their soybean acreage this year over 1941.

The result is about 40,000 acres of soybeans in Marion county alone—a total acreage that equals or possibly surpasses the corn crop which throughout recent history has been the No. 1 crop. The bean acreage is approximately double that of wheat in Marion county this year.

Conditions Just Right

Then, crop conditions happened to be just right and Marion county farmers are harvesting an average of 28 bushels of beans from each acre, which is well above the 10-year average of 20 to 22 bushels. The result was an avalanche of more than a million bushels of soybeans in Marion county this fall. Mr. Montgomery estimates that 40 per cent of the crop, or roughly around half a million bushels of beans is yet to come in—and there is virtually no storage space to accomodate it.

Old Fort Mills, Inc., Marion soybean processing concern rapidly filled its storage facilities and this week notified farmers and elevators that it will accept only beans for which definite shipping permits have been issued by the company. Walter E. Flumerfelt, manager, explained that storage facilities were virtually used up, that the processing of beans can not possibly consume the crop as fast as it's coming in, and that the restriction on accepting beans were set up to protect both farmers, elevators and the company.

Long Truck Line-up

One day last week, he said, 106 trucks were lined up at the Old Fort Mills Plant. They extended nearly to Center street on Grand avenue, and far back on George street. Many sat there all day, and it rained part of that day.

The restrictions established by the company, Mr. Flumerfelt explained, will prevent tying up these trucks and drivers in the future and will control the flow of beans to the plant only on a basis that will permit prompt handling.

There are definite prospects for relief of the storage situation, but they extend over a period of weeks. For one thing, Old Fort Mills have about half of its storage facilities tied up by storage of government wheat and corn, and that will be moved out possibly in a month to six weeks, opening the way for handling vast quantities of beans. He predicted the Marion county situation would be largely solved by the first of the year, but in the meantime farmers must work out some storage provisions of their own.

Wartime Necessity

Regarding the government storage bins, Mr. Flumerfelt commented that bins on the farms are a virtual necessity if the huge wartime crop is to be handled, and that providing bins on the farm is "smart business" even in peacetime, enabling farmers to hold their crops past the rush harvest season and sell them later at a more advantageous price.

One government regulation serving as an inducement to farmers to buy bins is an allowance of one cent a bushel per month for storage beginning Jan. 1. The government has fixed the price of soybeans at $1.60 a bushel, but will allow farmers an extra cent a bushel for each month the beans are held after Jan. 1, it was explained.

BRICKER LOOKS TO NEW TERM

Promises Short Term of Legislature; Payment of School Debt on Program.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 5 — A short session of the state legislature starting next January devoted chiefly to matters pertaining to the war effort was promised today by Gov. Bricker.

With an anticipated net treasury surplus of some $20,000,000, the governor said one of the most important problems would be construction of the budget with a view to conserving the surplus as much as possible.

"We are going to watch closely all corners in connection with expenses," Bricker declared.

He said he anticipated there would have to be some extra expense in financing local civilian defense activities as the state probably would have to support a greater share of such activities.

He also said additional funds may be provided for increasing the personnel of the state guard. Its size up to 4,800 is limited only by appropriations. There now are about 2,200 members of the guard. The additions would be made by forming new units in places where none now are maintained.

To Pay School Debt

OHIO'S 37TH HOLDS STRATEGIC ISLANDS

Beightler Says Division on Important Stepping Stones.

By The Associated Press

CAMP PERRY, O., Nov. 5—The U. S. army's 37th division which includes many Ohioans has been "holding certain islands in the Pacific that are considered the most important of all the 'stepping stones' with the exception of Hawaii and Australia," its commander says.

He is Maj. Gen. Robert S. Beightler, former Ohio highway director. The general gave the information to his friend Major Harry H. Kerr, post executive officer of Camp Perry, and it was approved for general newspaper use by the office of censorship after it appeared in army publications.

As shown on standard maps, major allied-held islands which might be considered "stepping stones" include New Zealand, the New Hebrides, the Fijis, New Caledonia part of New Guinea and the Samoas.

Marion Area Men In 37th Division

Soldiers from Marion and nearby counties are among men in the 37th Division.

Marion's Co. D of the former Ohio National Guard originally went into that division as well as virtually all of the early Marion area selectees sent to Camp Shelby, Miss.

Some of the units embracing Marion area men later were transferred to other divisions, but many of them are still in the 37th.

U. S. FIGHTERS GAIN GROUND IN GUADALCANAL

Allied Troops Also Forge Ahead Against Japs in New Guinea.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4—Persistent battering of the Japanese by land and air gave American and allied fighters fresh ground gains today in besieged Guadalcanal and New Guinea.

Further widening an attempted Japanese vise that threatened to close on the American-held airfield in Guadalcanal, United States marines and soldiers forced back the enemy's western flank, capturing about 20 machine guns and two small field artillery pieces in the process.

Overcome Resistance

In New Guinea, westward of the Solomon islands, allied troops under Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Australian command overcame "strong enemy resistance" and plunged on through the jungles toward the Japanese coastal base at Buna.

Supported by army and navy planes that strafed and bombed the Nipponese troops and positions, the United States forces inched forward along beaches and through the dense underbrush Monday (South Pacific time) to relieve the pressure on the important Guadalcanal airbase.

At the other end of the newly installed enemy vise, east of Henderson airport, recently landed Japanese troops presumably were manipulating for a thrust at the springboard of the American aerial assault on the foe's ships, troops and installations.

For obvious reasons, the navy gave no hint of what reception the American forces were preparing for the Nipponese fleet in event of its return to the Solomons battle area.

Fleet Return Awaited

The enemy warships, which disappeared after suffering heavy damage Oct. 26 in a major naval engagement east of the Stewart Islands and about 260 miles northeast of Guadalcanal, were expected to reappear in "formidable" numbers, secretary of Navy Knox has said.

MacArthur's headquarters reported today (Australian time) that the Nipponese New Guinea forces, which in late September had penetrated as far as 32 miles from the Allied Port Moresby base, now had been pushed back several miles beyond Kokoda, midway point across the island's 120-mile waist.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 5—Accused of failure to report for induction into the army, John Elmo White, 22, of Cardington, Morrow county, was held here today pending a hearing Nov. 12. White pleaded innocent before U. S. Commissioner William Weber at Zanesville. He termed himself a member of Jehovah's Witnesses, a religious sect. Bond was fixed at $5,000.

King Calls Rout of Axis in Egypt Brilliant Victory

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Nov. 5—King George VI described the rout of Marshal Erwin Rommel's African forces as a brilliant victory and his phrases set the pace for elated comment by normally restrained British military observers today.

The London Daily Express said axis losses probably already totaled not less than 40,000 men killed, wounded or captured, along with 80 per cent of the available air strength and at least half the gun power.

It was estimated that more than 50 per cent of the German and Italian armored forces were represented by 260 tanks sacrificed in a vain attempt to halt the westward push.

Well-informed observers who cannot be named said Rommel controlled about 300 Nazi tanks and possibly 200 of Italian manufacture when the allied offensive opened the night of Oct. 23.

The British radio hammered the story home to the peoples of Germany, Italy and the Nazi-occupied and neutral nations of Europe with broadcast after broadcast in many tongues.

King George congratulated Gen. Sir Harold Alexander, British Middle East commander, field officers and men for the cooperative blow by Lieut. Gen. B. L. Montgomery's Eighth army, the RAF and the royal navy. He said its importance "cannot be exaggerated."

"I can assure all three services, embracing as they do many representatives of the British common wealth and our allies, of the admiration and pride of the whole empire in their brilliant victory * * *," he said.

While caution was combined with optimism, the Daily Sketch said "we shall probably find that the Eighth army performed as great a feat as any of the war."

NAZIS RETREAT AT STALINGRAD

Reds Check All Advances and Force Enemy Back in Some Positions.

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, Nov. 5—The Russians have broken up all the latest Nazi efforts to expand the invasion salient in northern Stalingrad and, in some places, have forced the Germans to abandon several basic points, dispatches said today.

While bitter attacks and counterattacks developed about the ruined Volga river city, Red army troops were credited with local gains northwest of Stalingrad, on the Black sea front and in the Mozdok area of the central Caucasus.

A successful Soviet holding action was indicated before the Caucasian slopes and passes southeast of Nalchik.

Izvestia said the battle of Stalingrad was characterized by a growing maneuverability of Red army units.

Observers stressed the heaviness of the German attacks, however, and at least one point they threw in a new division. The latest German loss reported was

FIGHT CAUSES STRIKE

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Nov. 5—A walkout of some 700 AFL moulders unionists stopped war production at the John Harsch Bronze & Foundry Co. today. George Haas, union business representative, declared the walkout was in protest of discharge of a worker who had a fist fight with a foreman. The argument eventually settled and the two shook hands but the worker was discharged Tuesday, Haas added.

GERMAN ARMY SEEKS SAFETY AFTER LOSSES

By The Associated Press

CAIRO, Nov. 5—Weakened by the loss of thousands of men captured, killed, wounded or isolated in their desert strongpoints, a once-proud axis army was in full flight across western Egypt in a frantic hunt for position to avert destruction.

Only a rearward moving screen of anti-tank guns and tanks shielded the bulk of Marshal Rommel's African corps from the pressing advance of a United Nations army—the Eighth British—while a comparatively impotent air force sought to parry the combined blows of America and British-imperial airmen.

While 9,000 prisoners (by a count already 24 hours old) streamed dejectedly to the British rear, the allied air forces kept hitting at the foe, and the main coastal line of retreat was described as a veritable graveyard of smoking, twisted tanks, armored cars and trucks.

(The axis, with Rome acknowledging severe losses, said that Italian and German units had withdrawn to new lines in the west. The Germans denied that their front had been breached.)

(The Italian communique, however, indicated the depth of the Eighth army's drives at least 40 miles northwards when it told of fierce and bloody fighting by tank and infantry forces of both sides between El Alamein and Fuka.)

(Fuka is about 70 miles to the west of El Alamein. The British have not announced their present positions.)

It was believed that Rommel has no large reserves behind him, either in western Egypt or Libya.

The sudden collapse of the axis defenses was announced last night in a British communique after 12 days of furious fighting in which the allies were said to have taken a tremendous toll of Rommel's men and equipment.

Report Continued Advance

Today's communique told of a continuing British advance on all sectors of the front, with enemy tanks and anti-tank guns attempting to fight a rearguard action along the coastal road in the north—the main avenue of retreat.

At the southern end of the narrow front, axis forces were reported still holding out in a few isolated positions, but it appeared that the British were by-passing these in their general advance.

Allied planes kept the retreating axis forces under heavy attack and the dwindling air force at Rommel's command was kept strictly on the defensive. Except for one dive-bombing attack, which was quickly broken up by allied fighters, the British ground forces were unmolested from the air.

Intent on keeping reinforcements from reaching Rommel, allied bombers and torpedo carrying planes of all blasted at his overseas supply lines, damaging a tanker and a heavily laden merchant vessel and scoring three hits on escorting destroyers, the communique said.

The British reported destruction of 13 axis aircraft yesterday and acknowledged loss of 11 allied planes, but the allied losses were relatively small in proportion to the number of planes engaged on both sides.

Enemy in Full Retreat

Last night's British communique declared boldly that the enemy was "in full retreat."

In terse phrases the announcement painted the picture of a sweeping allied victory, disclosed that Rommel's second in command—General Von Stumme—had been killed in action and declared that the enemy was retreating in complete confusion.

Axis ship-to-shore losses for the first time since the beginning of the allied offensive, the bulletin reported that 260 enemy tanks had been destroyed, 600 aircraft knocked out of action, 270 guns wrecked or captured, 50,000 tons of shipping sunk and as much more damaged.

In addition, the communique said, the allies have captured a total of 9,000 axis prisoners, including General Ritter Von Thoma, commander of the German African corps, and a number of other senior German and Italian officers.

"It is known the enemy's losses in killed and wounded have been exceptionally high," the communique added.

While the announcement did not reveal the full extent of the allied advance, unofficial advices from the front indicated that British imperial forces were advancing rapidly on El Daba, site of an important enemy airbase 35 miles west of El Alamein, springboard of the current offensive.

Defense Difficult

Observers said that Rommel's chances of making a stand depended largely on the amount of reserves he might have massed at

BRITISH SAY ARMY 'BUSTED'

Fate Will Be Sealed Soon; Allies Now in Mopping Up Process.

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Nov. 5—An official British source said today that Marshal Rommel's army "is busted" and predicted that its fate would be finally sealed soon.

The United States and British air force, the British army and navy are engaged in what amounts to a mopping-up process, this informant, who must remain anonymous, declared.

"We are giving the hertenvolk in uniform a taste of what they gave the civilian population of France and we intend to keep on giving it to them," he said.

"This is only a prelude to what the Germans and their Italian lackeys can expect in the next few months."

Army Caught In Trap

Rommel's army is caught in a comparatively narrow defile along the coast and the Germans and Italians are being "hunted like rabbits" with every weapon at the allies' command, this source declared.

He said the British already had taken "a hell of a lot of prisoners" and would take more, but indicated that the grimmest kind of slaughter was being inflicted on "virtually helpless" axis troops.

This, he added, is Britain's answer to those who said the British could not fight on land and could not forget old school tie traditions.

It was also Britain's answer, he said, to those who scoffed at British and American equipment and he declared it was the frank British intention to turn the roads of Egypt and Libya and the desert tracks mercilessly into streets of death.

This source said that Rommel was known definitely to be in the desert but that it was not known exactly where.

"It is impossible to be too optimistic" about what has happened and what is going to happen in North Africa, declared this source who ordinarily is extremely reserved in comments on such operations.

Naval Forces Aid

He hinted that besides United States and British imperial land and air forces, British naval forces also are smashing steadily away at Rommel and that some of Britain's finest regiments are in reserve waiting for their turn.

This source expressed belief that the Germans had their main supply dumps in the front lines and that they would not find it possible this time to run away as they did when Lieut. Gen. Neil M. Ritchie, then commanding the Eighth army, was chasing them.

The spokesman paid high tribute to American war equipment and supplies sent to the Middle East.

"We've got Rommel where we wanted him," he said, "and the German soldiers are going to find out what the kind of warfare they have been inflicting on civilian populations is like."

The defeat of Marshal Rommel's

George M. Cohan, Famed on American Stage, Dies

GEORGE M. COHAN

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 5—George M. Cohan, 64, one of the most beloved characters in American show business, died early today after a long illness.

The "Yankee Doodle Dandee" of America, who produced and appeared in many memorable stage productions and who wrote songs that have come to be considered part of the American story, died peacefully at his home, 993 Fifth avenue, Manhattan, at 5 a. m., three hours after he passed into a coma. He had ben ill for one year.

At his bedside were his wife, Mrs. Agnes Cohan, his daughters, Mrs. George Ronkin, and Helen and Georgette Cohan, his old friend, Gene Buck, and his son, Private George M. Cohan Jr., and wife.

A tribute to the affection that Cohan won and maintained among fellow-Americans of all walks of life was paid recently in the form of a feature motion picture, "Yankee Doodle Dandee," currently appearing with James Cagney depicting Cohan.

Last Important Role

Well known as a song writer, actor and producer, his last important role was in the musical comedy "I'd Rather Be Right," in which he portrayed President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Cohan, once aptly described as a "drama practitioner," was dancer, actor, dramatist, producer, manager, composer and lyricist, motion picture and talkie star in a career that extended over more than 40 years. Also he was something of a poet and was always a baseball fan.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, quoting Victor Hugo's dictum that melodrama was for the crowd, tragedy for women and comedy for the thinker, once said that Cohan's genial satire and fun-provoking lines and antics had helped men and women to become thinkers in the modern American theater.

Cohan's efforts ran the gamut from being a boy prodigy violinist

IS your attic "war clean?"

You may be one of the housewives who boasts a spic and span attic, but it isn't "war clean" until everything but the vacant floor and walls is removed.

Fires spreading from the magnesium spray of an incendiary bomb to curtains, furniture, rugs and miscellaneous debris in the average attic are more dangerous than the bomb itself.

Obviously you can deal with a bomb more effectively and quickly if there is nothing in the attic to burn and plenty of room to battle the bomb.

If there are bare wood surfaces in your attic, they should be painted to make them spark resistant. Fill cracks with putty. Cover registers and open pipes with fireproof material. Carpeting not only catches fire easily, but may trip you when trying to reach a bomb.

If you think curtains are necessary to cover conspicuous attic windows, they should be fireproofed in a homemade mixture of 1½ pounds borax, 1½ pounds boric acid powder and 3 gallons of water.

Disposing of the junk is a problem you can solve wisely by donating the old newspapers, magazines, worn out clothing and various accumulations to the civilian defense office or a junk man.

Contribute to your own and the public safety while aiding the nationwide scrap drive. Include an attic "war cleaning" in your fall housecleaning schedule.

End of Hitler's Rule in Egypt Seen Approaching

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

LONDON, Nov. 5—The allied triumph in Egypt gives strong hope that we are witnessing the beginning of the not far distant end to Hitler's hold on North Africa.

The Nazi all-highest also is having visions of disaster for Berlin claims a "remarkable concentration" of British warships and transports at Gibraltar.

The Vichy government is reported to be holding conferences about North Africa and from Rear Admiral Luetzow of the German naval staff we get this:

"Casablanca, on French Morocco's west coast, is a danger spot far overshadowing Dakar.

"Africa swarm with United States agents whose gaze turns to Casablanca."

Is Hitler conjuring up buzzbears to torture his sleep? He will know in due course and so shall we. Meanwhile it is a most comfortable feeling to see him worry.

Still Work to Be Done

We must temper our natural optimism with caution because there is hard and bitter work to be done before the axis armies are annihilated.

Once before we had our dreams when Wavell drove defeated enemy columns far to the westward across the desert. But the axis still was strong then and the allies weak.

Certainly the forces under Gen. Sir Harold Alexander must be jubilant as they pursue and hammer what a British communique described as the "disordered columns" of the enemy. When you talk about "disordered columns" in retreat you are talking about a "rout," which is one of the greatest disasters that can befall an army.

Axis casualties already have been heavy. Enemy losses in material also have been mountainous and probably the heaviest individual blow dealt Hitler has been in the destruction of tanks. These racing fortresses have been the backbone of Rommel's striking power.

Air Losses Heavy

Probably a minimum of half of Rommel's air fleet has been destroyed. The likelihood is that the figure is nearer three-quarters. That is a colossal blow, especially since the Anglo-American aerial fleet already had superiority in the air.

Elimination of the axis from North Africa would alter the complexion of the European war.

Restoration of British domination over the Mediterranean area would remove a threat to the strategic Middle East.

It might easily result in the complete collapse of Italy.

It would vastly strengthen Spain's position of neutrality and this would ease a situation which has been a constant worry to the allies.

No wonder the fuehrer's boasted intuition is making him see pink elephants. As a matter of fact, it looks as though his intuition might be on the right track this time.

WOMEN OPERATE BRITISH SHIPYARD

Only Feminine Workers Employed; Record Good.

By International News Service

LONDON — Somewhere along the coast of Britain is a shipbuilding yard that is operated entirely by women. And they are turning out as proportionate a number of sea-going vessels as any man-run yard in the country.

They are engaged, at the present time, in constructing ships which are urgently needed for special work.

A large percentage of the women were experienced shipyard workers before the war; others went through special training periods in schools set up at the port.

So successful has been the experiment of women-built ships that the government is considering expanding the scheme. This will also help solve the acute labor shortage felt in Britain's shipyards.

Cold Weather Freezes Dodger from Woods

By The Associated Press

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Cold weather settling over the dense Ouachita forest of southwest Arkansas forced out a shaggy-haired, indicted draft dodger who for more than six months, eluded federal agents by continually moving about in the woodland.

FBI agent Red Hallford said the man, James Louis Sharp, 33, of Athens, Ark., told him "it seemed like I had spent two years in the woods and with cold weather settling in I couldn't stand it any longer."

Hallford said Sharp took to the woods when ordered to report for army induction last April 22 and had hidden there since.

The Trend Favored Republicans

BALANCE between the two major parties has been restored, as it was in the congressional elections of 1938. It has been made evident again that the Democratic party, in elections when Franklin D. Roosevelt's name isn't on the ballot, still must get votes the hard way, which is to say that the Republican candidates will get approximately half, except in the south.

Nationally and locally, the trend favored Republicans, sweeping many of them into office against strong Democratic opponents and bringing many more closer to victory than they expected to get. John W. Bricker's impressive victory in Ohio as a candidate for re-election and Thomas E. Dewey's walkaway in New York present the Republican party with two likely presidential possibilities for 1944. Gov. Bricker is the first Republican to be elected for three successive terms, a tribute to his administration of a difficult office.

Reelection of Congressman Smith by one of the largest majorities ever given a congressional candidate in the Eighth Ohio district was an unmistakable expression of confidence in his ability, integrity and patriotism. It may also be regarded as evidence that voters of the district feel he is just the type to man—courageous, able and independent—the country will need in congress when the time for post-war readjustment arrives.

The Republican trend extended to the seats in the general assembly, which were swept in this district by Republicans. In general, Republican success simply represents popular confidence in the theory of a two-party system—a theory that has been partly suspended at times during the last decade by the overwhelming strength of the Democratic party when Mr. Roosevelt's name was at the head of the ticket.

Why Not Skip It?

IT'S UNFORTUNATE that anyone ever took the trouble to find out which, if any, chaplain in the navy said, "Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition."

The whole thing was bound to be a disappointment the instant it began to be factual. Most famous sayings that originate in war are the result of what might be called the figurative treatment.

What anyone said while the Japanese were taking advantage of the United States at Pearl Harbor is problematic; there was no time to make recordings or take notes.

If someone said, "Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition," and if that someone happened to be a chaplain, and if someone overheard him and remembered to tell the right party about it afterward, that was clearly a chain of fortuitous circumstances. Because someone should have said it. This war has needed something catchy, and this is it. It's too bad some literalist was turned loose on the sour idea of providing a factual basis. Any sniffish scholar can—and does—prove with a twist of the wrist that all the catch phrases of previous wars weren't said the way they're quoted, or weren't even said at all.

To Spite Someone's Face

IT'S TOO BAD for the United States that there aren't enough men drawing more than $25,000 to make a terrific squawk about the humbuggery going on under the guise of anti-inflation measures.

As it is, perhaps one of the important battles of the times has been lost by default. More tragically yet, the loss is being called a victory by some people so blinded by prejudice they haven't learned what the score is.

When the government was given the right to put a ceiling on incentive for the exceedingly well paid, it seized the right to do the same thing for everybody else—right down to the lowest wage earner.

All this was done in the name of economic stabilization, of course, which makes it a war measure and, therefore, above reproach. But some day the war will be over and it may be plain then that the type of throat-grabbing bureaucrat that likes this sort of thing isn't going to disappear with the coming of peace.

It's more than likely the upshot of the whole business may be a lot of jealous characters realizing too late that they cut off their own noses to spite their faces. The well paid wage earners receiving more than $25,000 a year have been taken care of, albeit in a manner that threatens constitutional government and so have the wage earners all the way down to 25 cents. All that remains now is for the politicians to issue an edict that starting as of Monday morning last week no one shall keep anything, but turn it all over to government and the tender mercies of the politicians who took over the incentive system for the duration of the war and liked it so well they decided to keep it for the duration of the peace.

STILL EQUIPPED

So far as we have observed, the typewriter strategists are going right ahead with their strategy. Neither has the OPA nor the rubber administrator moved to take away their typewriters.—Kansas City Star.

News Behind the News

Japs Chased Away, But Expected To Return to Guadalcanal.

By PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 — The Japs were chased away from Guadalcanal again, but they will be back.

Their last sea sally was made up of about 30 ships, a sizeable portion of their fleet, so it is reasonable to expect that the next time they come they will be in even greater numbers.

That they must come back is certain, because they have committed themselves to the support of the troops they have landed.

A tough and dangerous continuing fight for the control of our remote foothold, therefore must be expected, with the final issue in doubt.

Our Chances

Our chances look good, some better than our heavy losses in ships may have lead capital news readers to suspect. The loss of the three cruisers we can stand fairly well, but the sinking of those two aircraft carriers was a damaging blow.

The Japs lost two carriers also (one damaged, one sunk) and they are not in a position to stand it as well as we can. They have but two or three regular standard carriers left, two large and one small. In addition, they probably have several carriers converted from merchant liners, which are not efficient for very strong action. Give them a minimum of five and a maximum of nine, only two of which are top-rating flat tops.

The official figures show we have three regular carriers from the number with which we started the war, several converted and several building.

The carrier is the main striking implement of sea action, as was shown again in the Solomons tussle. All our sea losses, except those of the two carriers sunk by submarines, were due to air action and, in the latest fight, all ship losses on both sides were wrought by carrier based aircraft.

So in this main striking force we are about even, although we have the edge because the responsibility for attack rests upon the Japanese.

Bitter Land Fighting

The land fighting has been ferocious, savage, with few prisoners taken on either side. Apparently it took the marines a little while to get accustomed to the fighting methods of the Japanese, but as the Japs apparently wanted it that way, they are getting it.

Obviously they have no superior strength on land. Their two penetrations of the lines of the marines were quickly pinched out. They stopped their night landings in small boats after their fleet was forced to withdraw.

So the fight on the sea is likely to decide the issue.

Libyan Drive

The British drive in Libya is no foray. It has strength and power behind it, yet undeveloped. The first several days of the advance was devoted to cautious, sure penetration of the German mine fields, three to five miles in depth.

They have used, mainly, artillery and infantry, keeping their tanks and aircraft in reserve for heavy action to come when they get through.

For this big fight to come, as the Germans well know, the British have carefully planned. They have amassed formidable supplies of aircraft and tanks.

The Germans lately have been hastening aircraft to the front to meet them, flying them over from the Russian front through their Crete base (which has also been expanded to protect Nazi supply lines more adequately.)

Their aerial and tank activity is suffering from lack of oil supply which will test the inventive genius of the trickery Rommel to the fullest.

MacArthur Punching

MacArthur's strong left arm on the Pacific front has meanwhile been punching the Japs back to the place where their northern shore bases in New Guinea are in danger.

His recapture of the Kakoda airfield has put him in position to open a new area of fighting northward from that spot. Furthermore, the Jap tactics of flanking and infiltration have been stopped.

It is apparent also MacArthur

Teen-Age Turmoil

How Action on Draft Bill Came To Be Delayed.

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 — It wasn't congress, it was the Army and the White House that held up passage of the 18-19 draft until after elections.

The war department took one look at that amendment requiring that all 'teen-age selectees serve for a year before they could see action and ran screaming to the White House. The White House passed the word along to the Hill that rather than have the bill pass in that form, congress could drop the matter entirely until the November ballots were tallied.

The motive for the amendment was commendable. There were men in congress and constituents back home who remembered World War I and how a lot of boys were shoved into the trenches before they knew how to wrap a puttee or whether it was the muzzle or stock of the rifle that they put to their shoulders.

Overlooked

Two things the Senate overlooked in tacking on that amendment were: (1) That for reasons wholly unsentimental the war department is less eager than any one else to see youths shoved into the fighting lines before they are properly trained: and (2) That such a stipulation on the new crop of 'teen-age selectees would knock the whole training program into a cocked hat and probably do the boys themselves more harm than giving them their baptism of fire with only a few months' training.

In the first place, under modern training methods, it no longer takes a year to train a soldier. Watch the boys on maneuvers who have been in eight or nine months and you'll understand.

In the second place, singling out the 'teen-age boys for a year of training would mean that the Army would have to segregate the youngsters in special training groups.

It would also eliminate one of the Army's most valuable training assets—"infiltrating" the youngsters into the ranks with older and more experienced men. In other words, the 'teen-age selectees would be deprived of the experience of training with the older men. To put them into those corps and then jerk them out when the units were ordered into the line would cause a juggling of personnel with which the Army couldn't cope.

Balance Desirable

The Army needs manpower younger than it has been getting (the average age of the Army now is about 28 years) but it doesn't need it badly enough to want to set up "baby battalions" who would go into action in a year or so with nothing but 'teen-agers in the ranks.

The 18-19 draft will pass and the best guess here is that it will pass without the one-year training clause. If it doesn't pass that way, some observers think it has a mighty good chance of being vetoed. The matter is that serious.

The 18-19 draft is probably going to have more effect on U. S. manpower and domestic life than any legislation since the first selective service law became operative.

Out of the more than 2,000,000 'teen-age youths who will become subject to military training under the law, there are, it is estimated, a half million now in war industries. Because these lads are young and lack years of experience and training, it will be difficult to exempt them under the "necessary man" clause.

The effect it will have on universities and colleges is something that educators here shudder to think about and refuse to be quoted on. There is a rumor that several of the nation's universities are planning to "fold up" before the spring semester opens. That may not be necessary. The delay in getting the 18-19 draft bill to the President's desk may result in the bulk of 'teen-agers not being called before next summer.

But even that would leave institutions of higher learning stripped of male students for the 1943-44 term. The alternative to closing would be converting to War or Navy department training centers.

Enlistment Prospects

The 'teen-age draft might be the signal for shutting off all voluntary enlistments.

If it gets into operation in time it may result in the deferment for a year at least of married men with one or more children.

You can't find any official who will vouch for this last, but if the manpower figures are anywhere near correct, we could raise an army of 9,000,000 men (including the 18-19 year olds) without further tapping married men with dependents.

Why then have there been so many conflicting statements about the need soon for drawing men from the married ranks?

That answer isn't really so difficult. Officials who have had anything to do with it have been bending over backwards to keep from announcing any policy on draft deferments in order to save the entire draft set-up from criticism.

Calls on the draft boards are made on a basis of population. Without going into every draft district and analyzing it thoroughly (a task equal to a national census), the population basis is the only one that can be used. But what happens? One district has several hotels for young men; another is made up entirely of young married couples, with one or two children, who are buying lower bracket homes; a third (there are many of them in the south) has a preponderance of illiterates.

Election Returns Seen as Giving Republicans Greater War Responsibility.

By WALTER LIPPMANN

THIS must be written before the complete election returns are in, particularly in regard to the extent of the Republican gains in congress. But it is certain that the Republicans have shown great strength in the gubernatorial elections in typical large states from Massachusetts and New York to California. Since the successful Republicans are men like Saltonstall, Dewey, Stassen and Warren, the net effect should be to broaden the political foundations of the war administration and thus to make the war more truly a national struggle.

For it is most desirable that the Republican party be placed in a position where its own men have to bear that kind of direct responsibility which alone can make the problems of the war entirely real to them, and alone can test their quality. It would be altogether deplorable if the war had to be conducted to the end with the opposition party sitting on the sidelines and making remarks about it.

From the size of Mr. Dewey's majority in New York it seems most likely that he would have been elected against any Democrat who could have been nominated. After 20 years the pendulum must swing against the party in power if only because the voters become tired of the old faces and have a healthy desire to see some new faces and to try out some new men.

The Farley Break

But in so far as the New York election was affected by the contest for the control of the Democratic party between Mr. Farley and the President, I venture to think that the defeat of Mr. Farley's candidate was a contribution to orderly party government. The President is the legitimately chosen leader of the Democratic party. On what legitimate ground did Mr. Farely seize control of the Democratic organization in order to assert his will as against that of the leader of his party? Was it on the ground of any principle or program which he chose to avow? Not at all. Mr. Farley and his candidate professed a whole-hearted support of the President. They were not insurgents, like the elder La Follette in the old days, like Willkie and Stassen in our day—men who fight in the open for things they believe in order to change the policy of their party.

Mr. Farley's fight was—judged by the public record — a mere fight for political power, a mere fight for the control of the political machine, with no open avowal of the purposes for which this control, if won, would be used. Now that kind of fight is no contribution to the healthy survival of the two-party system. If Mr. Farley does not believe in the President's leadership, which is his inalienable right, then to a believer in party government two courses were open to him: one was to announce a program which expressed his convictions and to fight openly for it in the Democratic primaries; the other was to support the Republican candidate.

Either course is a legitimate and responsible one to take under the two-party system. But to seek political power as such, to seek to seize control of the party machinery without declaring your platform, is to revert to old - fashioned machine politics and to undermine the party system and that responsibility of the party leaders which is the essence of good popular government.

Not Especially Significant

As to the general significance of the election, the one certain thing which can be said is that the seasoned observer will not profess to draw more meaning out of it than there is in it. The vote was light, and the electorate which decided this election was not fully representative of the nation. There are 800,000 men overseas in the Army alone, and to them must be added the men of the Navy and the war workers who have migrated. Nor was there any issue, except that of the ins versus the outs, and in an election of that sort what counts with the voters is not questions of policy but the mood engendered in the voters by the quality of the administration.

Nothing new and significant was discernible in the campaign which bears upon the general plan of the war or upon the post-armistice world. That is as it should be. For the next two years are going to be, measured by the impact of the events which will happen, the longest, the most crowded and moving years through which our generation has passed. We do not now know what we shall think and feel and wish to do because we can not know, even dimly, what is going to happen. To argue, then, that in these election returns one can forecast the historic future, is to pretend to know things for which there is as yet no evidence whatever. Who could foretell the future from the election returns of 1862? The answer is that no one could.

Helping Sailors

Move To Give Merchant Seamen a Better Break Picks Up New Converts, Spreads Over World.

By DAMON RUNYON

REP. THOMAS J. LANE of the seventh district of Massachusetts has introduced a bill in congress (H. R. 7664) which would provide that members of the merchant marine be given all the privileges accorded to veterans of the armed forces. In my opinion this is a long step forward in the campaign for proper public appreciation of the services of these gallant men.

I can tell you more about the effort to provide facilities for the rest and recuperation of the men when they come ashore after their hazardous ventures at sea in taking the supply ships to port. These facilities will presently be available not only in every American port but in every major port of the United Nations all over the world.

The United Seamen's service, which I mentioned the other day, has supplied me with a detailed statement of its plans and of what has been accomplished in a very few weeks of action. This enterprise was set in motion by the United States maritime commission and the war shipping administration and is directed by Douglas P. Falconer, until recently the director of the Greater New York fund. It will expand as a private project sponsored jointly by shipbuilders, ship operators, the maritime unions and the public.

CLUBS and hotels as well as the rest and recuperation centers are included in the plans, the first of the latter being set up through the patriotic cooperation of Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt early in September. She gave her estate near Oyster Bay, Long Island, to the USS and men and officers of the merchant marine who were torpedoed at sea or otherwise incapacitated in pursuing their wartime occupation are recovering there.

Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt is the daughter-in-law of the mighty Teddy. Her husband, Major Kermit Roosevelt, is now with the armed forces of his own country after serving with the British. Another rest and recuperation center was opened by the USS in late September at Bay Ridge, in Maryland, and the Andrew Furuseth club at 30 East 37th street, New York City, shortly afterward. This is the old Dartmouth Club house, Mrs. Junius Spencer Morgan donating the building to the USS.

In late October, the third rest and recuperation center was opened at Hamilton Farms, the C. Suydam Cutting Estate near Gladstone, N. J. This has facilities to accommodate 40 merchant marine sailors regularly and 200 under emergency. Now the USS has representatives in Philadelphia, Norfolk, New Orleans and San Francisco making surveys for clubs, hotels and rest and recuperation centers, while other representatives are overseas for the same purpose.

THE same facilities that now exist here will be set up in Cardiff in South Wales, Liverpool, Glasgow and Goulach—in Russian ports and ports of the Caribbean such as Port of Spain and Trinidad. Stanley E. Davises has been appointed to develop a unit in Iceland. The overseas facilities will serve seamen whose ships have been sunk and those who, for other reasons, are spending time in distant ports. They will provide health services, emergency financial help and recreation for the men while they are waiting for new berths. Meantime, the USS will do everything possible to help the families of the men here at home.

I think it should be mentioned that the entire United Seamen's service is operated by men and women who know ships and the men who man them. Admiral Emory S. Land is chairman of the board and Henry J. Kaiser, the shipbuilder, is president of the organization, with John E. Bierworth, treasurer, John B. Stalford, assistant treasurer, and Mrs. Lewis W. Douglas, secretary. The vice presidents are Joseph Lykes, Joseph Curran, Harry Lundeberg, John D. Reilly and Marshall Field III.

Worth Memorizing

It has been suggested much of late that private citizens, particularly those not expert in military affairs or those unconnected with government, should refrain from making suggestions about the conduct of the war—military, industrial, economic or political.

It is said that we must remain silent and allow our leaders and the experts to solve these problems unmolested.

This position threatens, I believe, to become a tight wall which will keep the truth out and lock misrepresentation and false security within.

The record of this war to date is not such as to inspire in us any sublime faith in the infallibility of our military and naval experts. Let's have no more of this nonsense.—Wendell L. Willkie.

Nazi Prisoners Heil

By The Associated Press

LONDON—Dr. C. E. M. Joad, professor, philosopher and star of B.B.C.'s "Brain Trust" program, said the only way he could get a rise out of an audience of German prisoners of war was to mention Hitler.

"They were perfect specimens of physical health and looked almost exactly alike. They gave me the impression that nothing was going on behind their masklike faces," Joad said in describing his speech to 150 Nazi prisoners.

"I felt I could make little contact with them until at a most casual reference to Hitler, they most disconcertingly stood up, clicked their heels and shouted 'Heil Hitler.'

"What are we going to do with this kind of mentality after the war?"

Private Up to Limit, Can't Buy More Bonds

He's Private Theodore F. Orsteifer, Company C, 810th tank destroyer battalion, formerly of New Texas, Pa., currently of Fort Bliss, Texas.

First, he joined the army; then, inheriting $154,000, he put $20,000 in war bonds and gave the remaining $134,000 to the government as an outright gift.

Now, he's on a spot. Under the class A pay reservation plan, he can't buy any more war bonds until next year.

COHAN

at the age of 5 to recognition in his mellow years as America's keenest stage interpreter of contemporary life. 'There aren't twenty people who really know the man,' one commentator wrote, 'but he knows more than 5,000 intimately.'

In New York he was 'the man who owns Broadway.' To the theatergoers of a generation ago in other cities he was the embodiment of his "Yankee Doodle Boy" song in "Little Johnny Jones." To his countrymen generally he was the composer of the world war song "Over There."

Prolific Writer

All told he wrote some 40 plays, collaborated in the framing of 30 more, turned out more than 100 songs, close to 200 vaudeville sketches and about a score of poems.

Cohan was born in Providence, R. I., to the popping of firecrackers and the waving of flags on July 4, 1878. His parents were troupers of old school variety shows, Jerry Cohan and Helen Costigan. A daughter, Josephine, was also born to them and the family later became noted for its "act" as The Four Cohans.

But before that stage was reached the son had blossomed out as a child violinist, billed as "Master Georgie." He quit this within a few years to become a child actor, having his first regular lines at the age of 9 in a play about "Daniel Boone." Two years later he toured in the title role of "Peck's Bad Boy," a comedy based upon the humorous writings of a former governor of Wisconsin.

His sister and parents meanwhile traveled with various road companies but the family came together in 1890 and for 10 years played back and forth across the country in variety theaters from Tony Pastor's in New York to the old Orpheum in San Francisco. They rarely failed to have bookings for 52 weeks in the year.

Started Royalty Plan

George started writing songs and vaudeville sketches in this period. He once said that he wrote 150 of the latter while he was between 17 and 21 years old. Instead, however, of selling them outright for the standard price of $50, he introduced the system of demanding royalties of from $10 to $25 a week on each for as long as the sketch lasted.

In 1901 he wrote, composed, directed and produced "The Governor's Son" which took the four Cohans into legitimate theaters. Shortly thereafter he and Sam Harris formed a producing partnership which in the next 15 years put on more than 50 comedies, plays and revues, with and without music.

At one time the partnership controlled five theaters in New York and one in Chicago. The association ended in June, 1920, and thereafter Cohan continued for years "on his own."

Cohan long resisted all blandishments to get him into film plays but succumbed in 1915 for a brief contract that resulted in three silent movies and, in 1932, he made his first "talkie." "It's my last one too," he said when he returned from Hollywood to his beloved Broadway.

Cohan was married twice. His first wife was Ethel Levey, who became his dancing partner with "The Four Cohans" after his sister Josephine married. A daughter Georgette was born to them. The marriage was dissolved in 1907. The second Mrs. Cohan was Mary Nolan. They were married July 4, 1908. Their children were Mary Helen, Helen Frances and George Michael Jr.

Mayor's Coffee Leaves Dark Brown Taste

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK — Gourmets and coffee experts had a bad taste in their mouths at the city "dinner" of Mayor La Guardia's "saving" suggestion to mix fresh coffee with used grounds if you want coffee at every meal.

"It would make a horrible wishy-washy mess," says Richardson L. Wright, president of the Wine and Food society.

"If that satisfies the mayor, he can have it. He is a better conductor of an orchestra than he is a cook."

The National Coffee association also prefers sour notes to bitter tastes, and said that in the matter of coffee concoction "the mayor was playing strictly by ear."

In the question of old-fashioned coffee pots versus eastern percolators, the experts gave Laguardia support to the mayor's support of the pot. They agreed with him when he said part of the trouble is coffee pots versus eastern percolators, the experts gave LaGuardia support to the mayor's support of the pot. They agreed with him when he said part of the trouble is coffee pots.

The mayor's attempt to stretch a pound coffee started this furore in the coffee pot.

Sweetheart of AEF Has Hopes of Trip To Ireland

By ADELAIDE KERR
Wide World Features Writer.

Janet Barry's vacation has widened since she won the title Sweetheart of the AEF in Ireland and England.

All she dreamed of before was a vine-covered bungalow in New Jersey.

What she yearns for now is a personal appearance tour in Ireland.

But both dreams are linked to one man—Corporal Albert Wexler, whose ruby ring she wears, and who is now stationed with the AEF in the Emerald Isle.

"If only I could go there," says Janet - with - the - light - brown - hair - the - cream - and - peaches - epidermis - and - the - Hollywood - silhouette - below - the - knees. "I haven't seen him since he left this year. And if you knew how I want to go! I'd love to go with a theatrical group to make personal appearances and keep up the morale of the boys for a certain number of days. After all they chose me as their sweetheart."

JANET BARRY

Met Two Years Ago.

Corporal Wexler has been leading man in the Barry drama since the day about two years ago [illegible] walked into a Jersey store [illegible] call on a friend, and met Janet [illegible] crying money from stores to [illegible] the same friend.

After that it was a date nearly every night at the Boulmar, N. J., apartment where the 5-year-old Janet lives with her father (an auxiliary military policeman at Fort Monmouth), her mother (a telephone operator) and her 16-year-old brother (who works in a food market).

Albert, who formerly conducted an Asbury Park photograph studio with his brother, and who is now in the 16th signal battalion, had a hand in Janet's choice as Sweetheart of the AEF. From a score of photographs he selected his favorite and entered it in the sweetheart contest.

The Sweetheart of the AEF in Ireland is slim and tall—five feet nine inches. She gives her measurements as follows: bust 36 inches, waist 22½ and hips 35. She weighs 140 pounds, wears a size 16 or 18 dress, a 7½AA shoe and size 7 gloves.

Preferred Work.

School bored her, so she quit in her junior year at high school, held a succession of jobs and is now a stenographer at Camp Evans, N. J.

Her choice as Sweetheart of the AEF started the biggest week she has ever known. Trips to New York, where she does not know her way around, pictures in the [illegible] and a broadcast [illegible] were tailored to Albert's fancy.

"I wish I could just sit at the end, I'll bet you," Janet said. Sweetheart or not, I'll be just so, you know. There was a dentist in London and one in New York and the trouble he had with me! And out of the way they were put at me. But they did add I have 'pep' to the script and the censors passed it.

Janet has definite ideas about the role of a soldier's sweetheart. She should:

"Write him at least five letters a week. And they should be cheerful, newsy letters, not sad ones. She should be true to him in every respect. And she should trust him—no matter where he is."

TRUSTEE FOR WAR PLANT TRACT SOUGHT

Friendly Suit Brought To Deal with Life Estate Bequest.

Appointment of a trustee to accept the purchase price for 94 acres of land in the Scioto Ordnance Plant area is sought in a petition filed in common pleas court by Mrs. Emma C. Hinamon. It is the first such action brought in the court in connection with the Ordnance Plant area.

The land is part of a farm of 140 acres willed to the plaintiff by her father, the late Sam Croft. The will gave her a life estate in the farm, with the stipulation that upon her death it was to descend to her children.

Under the law and the will, neither she nor the children can accept the money, since she holds a life estate in the land and until her death the children will not come into possession.

The laws of Ohio permit a court to authorize a trustee to accept the money and invest it in real estate of the same type, with the same stipulations that were made in the will.

Samuel L. Hinamon and others, her children and their wives, are defendents in the friendly action brought to make possible the receiving of the money from the government.

Upon appointment, the trustee will be authorized to go into federal court in Toledo and get money the government has deposited there for the Ordnance Plant land.

Mrs. Hinamon is represented by the firm of Strelitz, Dowler & Wiedemann.

BIO-MINERAL FOR BETTER HEALTH!

AN IDEAL HEALTHY COLON
With BIO-MINERAL you can keep the colon clean and healthy eliminating accumulated poisonous matter.

MINERALS and VITAMINS are considered the very best health remedies today. They are so widely acclaimed, that people look at them as a "God-sent" gift. Books have been written about their merit. The Government encourages the use of them. Professors in colleges praise them sky-high. Bakers now enrich their flour with Minerals and advertise it. Health lectures are heralding the good news about them. In schools, in health institutions, in the press, in churches, on the radio, everywhere, the cry is: MINERALS! . . . MINERALS!

MINERALS are important to keep and regain health. The warring nations bolster the health of their armed forces with minerals. The Medical Profession—now as never before—is stressing the importance of Minerals. We are told that "WE ARE WHAT WE EAT!" Foods lacking in Minerals are often the cause of many ailments, such as: Decaying teeth, Failing eyesight, Nervous tension, Constipation, Gas-Toxins, Bloating, Kidney and Bladder trouble, Frequent colds, Common headaches, Bad breath, general Run-down condition and other disorders.

THE MIRACULOUS AID OF MINERALS

WHY do Doctors, Hospitals, Sanatoriums, Naturalists, and Specialists recommend Minerals? And why do millions year after year rush to Mineral Springs to find cure or relief from Stomach and Kidney ailments, Gall stones, Rheumatism, Arthritis, Neuralgia, Low or High blood pressure, Infantile Paralysis, etc., etc? Because of the miraculous aid of the Natural minerals, known for many centuries as the most reliable remedy for those ailments.

THE CURATIVE properties of Minerals is not a new discovery. In ancient Greece and Rome, in China and India, for thousands of years people knew the curative wonders of Minerals. In America we have the famous Mineral Springs in Georgia, patronized by thousands years after year. In France, the Aix Le Bains and the Louvre, and in Greece, the very famous Springs of Thronion where, according to the legend, Hercules, the God of Strength and Youth drank and bathed to rejuvenate; to be forever young.

BIO-MINERAL IS NATURE'S GIFT

BIO-MINERAL is a combination of vitally important Minerals, blended by Nature for those suffering the agony of Rheumatism, Arthritis, Stomach and Kidney ailments. It comes from the depths of the earth — Nature's laboratory. Is NOT a Mineral Oil, physic or harmful drug. Contains NO alcohol—NO drugs—NO opiates—NO preservatives—NO oil. NOT a SINGLE habit forming ingredient. ONLY Natural, Life-Giving Minerals—these same minerals of the world's best springs in highly concentrated liquid form.

ORDINARY cathartics are habit forming and never cure constipation. They force out the foods and digestive juices from your stomach and do not correct the cause of your trouble. BIO-MINERAL will not interfere with the natural foods in your stomach. It reaches down to the root—to the walls of your intestines, neutralizing, throwing away abnormal waste material, gas-toxins and bloating. Not like physics, oils and cathartics do . . . but in a Natural, harmless, painless way—doing a real "house-cleaning."

TRY BIO-MINERAL AT OUR EXPENSE

IF YOU cannot go to the Mineral Springs, common sense will advise you to try BIO-MINERAL. See the wonderful results 3 days after you start taking it. Regardless of how long you have been suffering and how many medicines and drugs you tried before and did not help you, BIO-MINERAL may be the remedy you needed and were looking for. Try it at our expense! . . . Nothing to lose. It is sold on a Money-Back Guarantee!

REMEMBER—It is your Health that counts—not your wealth, age, looks or knowledge! If you want better health, TRY BIO-MINERAL. It may do wonders for you . . . It may UPROOT and drive your ailments OUT of your system. Make you feel better, eat better, sleep better, work better, really enjoy Life, and eat anything you wish—even things you like and could not eat before. Try it today, it is really marvelous.

NEW LIFE-LIKE MASK HIDES MARRED FEATURES

Chicago Surgeon Devises Means of Covering Scars.

By The United Press

CHICAGO — Dr. Dr. Adolph Brown, Chicago plastic surgeon, describes in the October issue of the International Abstract of Surgery a life-like plastic mask which may be worn by disfigured victims of war, accident or disease while they are being rehabilitated.

Dr. Brown said the mask is so life-like that it scarcely can be detected by "the most sharp-eyed observer." He said it enables patients undergoing lengthy plastic surgery to move about in public without embarrassment.

Some patients using the masks exhibit their new faces proudly to relatives and intimate friends, much as some persons display newly acquired dental work, Dr. Brown said. He added that the psychic effect on morale of the patient was excellent.

Dr. Brown, whose hobby is art, already has created many successful masks for patients, including full facial masks and also ears, noses and fingers.

The greatest difficulty, reported by the plastic surgeon was the requests from patients to rebuild their facial features too beautiful to be in harmony with other existing features.

Dr. Brown said that one man asked for ears that were small and close-set instead of the large, outstanding ears that he had all his life.

A visor made of plexiglass cushioned against the forehead and cheeks by sponge rubber has been invented by a New York state man for the protection of athletes who wear spectacles.

A hand-operated tool has been invented by a Wisconsin man to be locked in a bench vise to turn down armatures being repaired and undercut their mica separations.

Tweep, Mule and Bike Help U. S. War Effort

By International News Service

RANDOLPH FIELD, Texas — "Mules," "tweeps" and the lowly bike are doing their part in the air war on the axis.

At the West Point of the Air, the 1942 "Army mule" is a midget motorized tug which does most of the heavy pulling jobs. The four-wheel baby shuttles giant planes about on the ramp, chugs placidly along in front of mammoth gasoline trailers, pulls loads of 100 mechanics, and generally serves as utility vehicles for the Randolph technicians.

The "tweep" is a three-wheel device with a tin compartment in its front in which spare parts and equipment may be carried. Steered by handlebars, it is propelled by a small gasoline motor.

The bicycles may be seen everywhere on the huge Army Air Forces post. They rapidly are becoming the No. 1 mode of transportation for both officers and enlisted men.

G. O. P. and Anti-New Dealers Threaten Democratic Control

Lead of Eight Too Small To Assure Safe Working Majority on Controversial Measures.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 — For practical legislative purposes, the New Deal lost control of congress in Tuesday's elections although the Democratic party maintained a bare majority with 218 house seats and a larger margin in the senate with 56 members.

While late returns in a few closely contested races held the possibility of slight increases in these majorities, there remained little doubt that Republicans and anti-New Deal Democrats could control legislation in either body any time they chose to unite.

This was especially true in the house, where the bloc of Democratic members who often vote against New Deal proposals there is such that a coalition could effect a substantial working majority on any controversial legislation.

Balance of Power

A possible eight-vote margin for the Democrats in the senate, however, would leave the out-and-out New Dealers in the minority any time five of a dozen or more majority party members who have been critical of administration policies elected to go along with a solid Republican lineup on some issue.

The effect of this realignment was expected to result in sharpening congress' critical attitude toward conduct of the war, its possible rejection of any more social reform legislation for the duration, and the strengthening of demands for stricter legislative control of the operations of such agencies as the office of price administration.

President Roosevelt might well meet the changed situation by acting more frequently in an executive capacity, instead of setting in motion the relatively slower and less certain legislative machinery.

The powers already granted the President by congress are broad and Mr. Roosevelt recently has shown an increased disposition to use them as demonstrated by his action through Economic Director Byrnes in putting a $25,000 limitation on salaries after the legislators had brushed aside suggestions of this nature.

Restrictions Unlikely

Few members believed, however, that repeal of any of these wartime presidential powers would be attempted while the nation is involved in a worldwide struggle.

But there were a few things congress may want to have more say about, such as the size of the army, the price of farm products, and the scope of possible compulsory manpower control. The legislators, of course, hold the purse strings, but they already have provided the executive departments with more than $225,000,000,000 in appropriations to run the war, so any economies they could effect would be minor.

The 'teen age draft bill, before the house Monday for consideration of senate changes, may furnish the first test of election reaction, although new members will not take their seats until January.

The administration is straining desperately to knock out a senate amendment to the bill which would require a year's military training in this country before 18 and 19 year old inductees could be sent to foreign combat zones. In this move, however, it has the support of many Republicans as no party issue is involved.

CAR STICKERS TO SHOW REASON FOR "C" CARD

Extra Gas Ration To Be Explained.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5—The new "C" gasoline ration sticker will tell the public just why the motorist received it—whether he gets more than 470 miles of non-occupational driving a month for being a doctor, farmer, farm worker, essential war worker, etc.

Purposes for which "C" rations are permitted will be listed on each sticker, and local ration boards will place a check mark beside the purpose for which each sticker was granted. Motorists, in turn, must display a sticker for the most liberal type of ration book allowed them.

The office of price administration said purposes for which "C" cards may be issued include:

Official government or Red Cross business; school officials traveling from school to school; transportation of four or more persons to school; transportation of United States mail; wholesale newspaper delivery; carrying approved photographic equipment; physicians, surgeons or veterinarians; public health nurses on urgent; embalmers; ministers; priest or rabbi; transportation of farm workers. Marine workers or farm materials; essential hospital, utility or war worker labor camp; attendance at war production training and training of workers; construction, repair and maintenance services of production essentials; members of armed forces to duty; telegraph delivery; essential scrap agents.

G.O.P. TAKES FULL CONTROL

Republicans Hold Big Edge in House and Senate at Columbus.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 5 — Republicans made a clean sweep of all executive offices in the state yesterday and increased their majorities in both houses of the general assembly.

The Republican victory was the greatest since 1920 when Democrats were swept out of office in the wake of the Harding landslide.

Democrats retained only two offices, those of secretary of state and the state treasurer.

Republicans will have a majority of 23 in the senate and 74 in the house of representatives.

Democrats had controlled the senate 18 to 15 and the house 68 to 57.

The election returned to the legislature a membership unchanged from 1941 in the 30 congressional districts. Republicans will have 20 members and the Democrats 10.

Democrats of the legislature will not assume the responsibility of reapportioning the state's congressional districts. The present districts were drawn by a Democratic legislature in 1941 and will be used in the 1942 election.

And some persons may debate in the governor's office. Senator Ellis Arthur, Republican, defeated Governor Martin L. Davey by a majority of nearly 225,000 votes, even Democratic Chairman Wolfe Hoffman conceded "the chances are considerable" that Arthur will be the governor-elect.

Look Out for Wartime Constipation!

Lack of "bulk" one of common causes

Don't be surprised if you find all ordinary drugs not doing their best. Look at how you live! Longer hours, harder work, irregular meals—your whole way of living has been upset. Especially ordinary laxatives. Meals are apt to be irregular, inadequate—and the important bulk of daily diet lacking.

And lack of "bulk" is one of the most common causes of constipation! Sometimes these very laxatives you depend on don't get at the cause.

The answer to this kind of trouble is Ex-Lax, which gives a comfortable, gentle, yet thorough relief—because it's not a mere laxative. For Ex-Lax contains not only a mild laxative but also "bulk" to help relieve this type of constipation. Ex-Lax is the only laxative with the action of Ex-Lax. Why not start using Ex-Lax tonight? Annual Enrollment Drive Opened by Junior Red Cross in Schools

Young People in City and County Invited To Join in Activities of National Organization.

The annual enrollment drive of the Junior Red Cross opened this week in the Marion city and county schools.

The annual campaign is not a fund-raising drive. It is staged to enroll young people who will carry out the many services performed by the junior branch of the American Red Cross.

"Membership in Junior Red Cross teaches a young person the ways and values of community living, because they work in groups," according to Mrs. J. H. Harmon, chairman of the Marion County Junior Red Cross.

"All children of school age are eligible to join in either public or parochial schools of the city and county. There is no individual membership fee. A pupil is entitled to membership when he or she has made a voluntary contribution which he has earned or saved, or when he has performed a service which shows interest in the Junior Red Cross. In the elementary grades each class room is enrolled for 50 cents; in high schools units of 100 pupils join for $1. All money contributed over this amount remains in the children's service fund, to be used in carrying on their work."

Make Own Selection

After joining the Junior Red Cross, members choose their own activities from a nationally approved list of more than 70 projects, such as making afghans, ash trays, lamps, and ping pong tables for the armed forces.

Each school has a teacher-sponsor, its own officers and representatives to the Marion County Junior Red Cross council.

Council officers this year are Nannette Millisor of Harding High school, president; Lillis Flatman of Vernon Heights Junior High school, vice president; Alice Marquis of Thomas A. Edison Junior High school, secretary, and John Stuckey of Central Junior High school, treasurer.

On the chapter committee in charge of the Junior Red Cross are Mrs. E. O. Smith, production; Miss Ruth Turner, first aid classes; Mrs. J. C. Ackerman, home nursing classes; Mrs. J. D. Torrance, favors; Mrs. Robert LaMarche, delivery; Miss Mabel Wheatley, displays.

National Record

Nationally, members of the junior organization last year earned 260,678 first aid certificates; 37,137 life saving and water safety certificates; 44,071 home nursing certificates and an estimated 1,500 nutrition certificates.

The membership campaign this year will continue through Nov. 15.

In other years the junior drive has been coordinated with the annual roll call in November. However, due to the war the roll call will be replaced by a nation-wide war chest drive next March. To get in a full school year of junior work, it was decided to conduct the junior campaign this week and next week.

Rifle Training Class Planned at Galion

Special to The Star

GALION, Nov. 5—In cooperation with the Galion defense council the Galion Rifle club has announced that a basic rifle training course will be offered on Tuesday nights at the City building range. The course which consists of five 2-hour lessons taken from the army manual, will train men in safety first, gun action, sighting, firing technique, range firing and target analysis ending with written examinations.

Instructors from the Galion club will begin the course next week with any male American citizen eligible between the ages of 18 and 45 years. Officials noted, however, that 1-A men will be given preference in the selection of the first class of 15.

Since the civilian defense council is bearing a portion of the necessary expenses the enrollment fee will be only $1, to cover the cost of ammunition, targets, and equipment.

NEW AIR COURIER SERVICE PLANNED

Planes To Aid War Industries in Cleveland Area.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Nov. 5 — The Ohio wing of the civil air patrol will provide emergency transportation of material and personnel for war industries in the Cleveland area through an airplane courier service, starting next week.

This was announced following a conference here among Major Earle L. Johnson of the army air corps, national commander of the new CAP; Major George A. Stone of Columbus, commander; and Captain Kent H. Smith, executive officer of the Ohio wing; and local patrol commanders.

"This courier service is not intended to compete with any common carrier," Major Johnson said. "It is intended to function as an aid to the war effort by giving transportation service where no other is available to meet demands for speed."

It was expected the plan would help prevent production delays by speeding delivery of critical materials and parts, and conserve the time of industrial executives and technicians on trips made pursuant to the war effort. Participating war plants will be asked to underwrite expense of the courier service, which also will be available to official agencies of federal, state and local governments and the Red Cross. A reserve of 90 planes and pilots in the patrol will provide a "stand-by pilot" every day at airports east and west of Cleveland.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

NEW CIVILIAN WAR PROGRAM PLANNED

Every City Block in State To Be Organized.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 5—Ralph H. Stone, state defense director, today announced plans to set up a civilian war service program in every city block in Ohio.

He asked each local defense council to appoint a chief of civilian activities and begin the block plan of community organization "to mobilize every man, woman and child behind the various civilian war services."

Under the program each community would solve its own transportation, salvage, housing, nutrition and other service problems wherever possible.

The state council of defense has demonstrated to date on the protection phase of the program, Stone asserted, but now will emphasize service projects "to encourage a clearer understanding by all people of the reasons behind our civilian war efforts and to develop a neighborly spirit of cooperation for war service."

Similar plans will be worked out in rural areas wherever possible.

When women were first employed by the federal government in the middle of the 19th century, they appeared on the payroll in the name of some male relative.

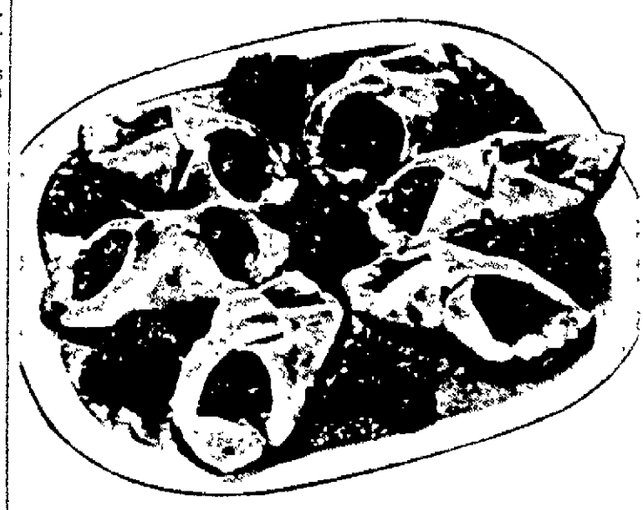
PILLSBURY'S MEAT CONES

...a zesty flavor, set off by delicate, flakiest biscuit... from that dependable all-purpose flour, Pillsbury's Best!



MAKE YOUR MEAT GO FARTHER WITH PILLSBURY'S MEAT CONES

...a hearty meat dish with a different, side-saddle flavor... serves 6 to 8 at about 12 cents per person.

TEMPERATURE: 400° F.
TIME: about 25 minutes

- 2 cups sifted PILLSBURY'S BEST Enriched Flour
- 3 teaspoons baking powder (or 2 teaspoons double-acting)
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ cup shortening
- ¾ cup milk (about)

(Enrichment of Pillsbury's Best adds two essential B-vitamins and iron to your family's daily diet—with no change whatever in its creamy-white color, its mellow wheaty flavor... or the faithful way it works for all your baking.)

1. Sift flour once, measure; add baking powder and salt, sift together. 2. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse meal. 3. Add milk all at once, mix with a fork or spatula until all flour is dampened. 4. Turn out on floured board, knead lightly a few seconds to smooth dough. 5. Roll out in a rectangle 16 x 8 inches. Cut into eight 4-inch squares.

Meat Filling

- ½ cup chopped onion
- ½ cup chopped green pepper
- 1 tablespoon fat
- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- 2 cups (1 lb.) ground raw beef, pork, or veal
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper

1. Pan-fry onions and green pepper in fat until tender. 2. Combine egg, meat, and seasonings. Add onions and green pepper. 3. Divide mixture into 8 equal parts. Form into small rolls about two inches long. Place three-cornered on dough square; bring the uncovered opposite corners together, moisten edges and seal. 4. Place on greased baking sheets. Bake in hot oven until meat is done.

Next a tangy tomato sauce—the crowning flavor touch! But, first, notice the exquisite tenderness and flakiness of your biscuit. Everything you bake with Pillsbury's Best turns out like that! Sergeant Lake opened the door ahead of Todd and admitted him to the district attorney's office.

"Here's Malone, Mr. Hinton," Lake announced.

Peter Hinton, district attorney, glanced at Todd keenly, waved him to a chair. "How do you do, Malone. Sit down."

Todd sat down. Lake dragged up a chair next to him, and Hinton leaned back in his swivel chair and lit a pipe.

"You look bigger in street clothes than you do on the football field," he observed irrelevantly.

"I guess I do," Todd admitted mildly. Hinton puffed on his pipe a couple of times and leaned forward.

"Malone, it's really a shame that the best quarterback in State history should have had all the trouble you've had. And now I want to tell you you're in the clear at this time. Outside of that one unfortunate statement you made there's nothing on which we can hold you.

"That doesn't mean we're dropping the case where it is, however. The coroner is convinced Humphries was murdered by a blow on the head and that there was a slight struggle in that laboratory. And we just don't allow university professors to get themselves murdered without bending every effort to track down the killer."

"I hope not," Todd said.

"So, the only reason I called you in today is to tell you that as far as this office is concerned—" Hinton paused and smiled—"you can start playing the kind of football we're used to getting from you."

For the first time in a long time Todd allowed himself the luxury of a grin. "Thanks. I'll get you a ticket when the game comes up Saturday."

When Todd had left Hinton drummed his fingers on his desk. "Lake, we're simply got to make some headway on this thing. I want you to spend every hour of your time on this case.

"Check with everyone who knew Humphries well. Check Humphries' correspondence, whatever you can find of it, and see what visitors he's had at his quarters. Don't overlook a thing.

"Spend some time with Dr. Stephen Coulter. Humphries was his pride and joy. He might be able to reveal something of Humphries private life that might furnish a clue. If he does it'll be the first decent one we have," he added gloomily.

For Quick Cough Relief, Mix This at Home

Saves You Big Dollars, and It's So Easily Mixed.

Here's an old home mixture your mother probably used, but for real results, it is still one of the most effective and dependable, for coughs due to colds. Once tried, you'll swear by it.

It's no trouble. Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups granulated sugar and 1 cup water a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed—it's so easy! Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup.

Now put 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and add your syrup. This makes a full pint of truly splendid cough medicine, and gives you about four times as much for your money. It keeps perfectly, tastes fine, and lasts a family a long time.

And you'll say it's really amazing, for quick action. You can feel it take hold promptly. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and helps clear the air passages. Thus it makes breathing easy, and lets you get restful sleep.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well-known for its prompt action on throat and bronchial membranes. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

"I'M AT THE END OF THE ROAD"

His eyes moist with tears, Senator George Norris of Nebraska is seen in Washington after learning of his defeat by Republican nominee Kenneth Wherry. The 81-year-old senator, who has given 40 years of service, told reporters that it's all over now and I'm at the end of the road as everyone knows I'll never get over it." Norris had received the endorsement of President Roosevelt. (Phonephoto.)

of interest charges," Bricker said. The debt was inherited from the former administration of Gov. Davey.

There possibly will be an adjustment also in the salaries of state employes, especially those in the lower brackets to make earnings more commensurate with increased living costs, he said.

No change in the present amounts or financing of old age pensions is contemplated.

Bricker said he also would ask the legislature to make some adjustments in the hours of labor to meet demands of the war effort. Any adjustments, he declared, would be only for the duration of the war.

"I don't want any permanent change made in our present labor standards," he said.

Building appropriations for the welfare and educational institutions, still amounting to about $5,000,000, will be again set aside for that purpose and probably added to, the governor said. Priorities on material necessitated delay in completing the building program.

Controversial Question

Probably one of the most controversial pieces of legislation to be undertaken will be a new administrative code proposed by a special legislative commission. This contemplates simplifying procedure before the various state boards and commissions.

The new legislature also is expected to wrestle with the proposition to place the state back on central standard time, which under war time would make the time one hour later than at present. The governor said there was much sentiment over the state for the change though he would not state definitely whether he would advocate a switch.

The governor said he did not anticipate any opposition to revising the state school code which may be recommended by a special commission now studying the matter.

He said he expected to call in all department heads soon to go over the matter of possible legislation desired or needed by their departments and also to consider their financial needs.

Baltimore Man Says Couple Broke Up His Home.

Suit for $25,000 for alleged alienation of the affections of his wife has been filed in common pleas court by Marvin W. Strosnider of Baltimore, Md., against C. H. Haines and Nellie Haines of Caledonia.

The petition states that the couple were married May 4, 1941 in Baltimore, Md., and that following their marriage Mrs. Strosnider was persuaded by the defendants to return to Ohio. The plaintiff charges that the defendants, acting together, threatened his wife and hid her clothes, and have made it impossible for her to return to him. He states that he came to Ohio for the purpose of having his wife return to their home in October 1942 but that the defendants have prevailed upon her to remain apart from him and lose her affection for him. Mrs. Strosnider made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Haines a part of the time. Mr. Haines is employed in an industrial plant in Marion. The law firm of Mouser & Mouser represent the plaintiff.

Mrs. Strosnider, who was Madeline F. Bowser before her marriage, filed a suit for divorce in common pleas court last month. She is represented by Edwin B Spohn, attorney.

May Wins in Kentucky by Narrow Margin

By The Associated Press

LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 5—Rep. A. J. (Jack) May, one of President Roosevelt's chief war aids, won reelection by the narrowest of margins in the Seventh district, and Sen. A. B (Happy) Chandler was returned to office for a full six-year term, virtually complete unofficial returns from Kentucky precincts showed today.

May's return to congress as chairman of the important house military affairs committee was fought by United Mine Workers and their president, John L. Lewis, but tabulations from 362 of the Seventh's 363 precincts gave the representative a margin of 22,138 votes to 21,627 for Dr Elmer E. Gabbard, Republican. No votes were cast in one precinct.

SCRANTON AVENUE RESIDENT STRICKEN

Aaron Wells Dies at Daughter's Home in Ashley.

Aaron Wells, 71, of 475 Scranton avenue, died yesterday at 1:15 p. m. at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Edward Cramer, in Ashley. He had been ill for some time and had been at the Cramer home about a week. He was a retired farmer.

He was born in October, 1871 in Union county to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wells. He had lived in Marion about 10 years, moving here from a farm near Ashley.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. May Wells, two daughters, Mrs. Cramer and Mrs. Carol Fleming of Cardington, and two sons, Harry Wells of Hepburn and Ernest Wells of 319 Pearl street, and two sisters, Mrs. Alfred Shults of 316 Blaine avenue and Mrs. Louis Powers of Cardington and a nephew, Ernest McPeek of 340 Davids street.

Crestline Motorist Accused of Speeding

Alleged to have been driving 90 miles an hour on Route 30-N, about 11:15 last night near Bucyrus, Clarence Moyer, 31, of Crestline was arrested by the state highway patrol and charged with reckless driving. He posted $100 bond for his appearance Friday at 3 p. m. in mayor's court at Bucyrus.

Charged with failure to register an automobile, Frank Johnston of Worthington was fined $5, and costs by Justice J. J. Schweitzer yesterday afternoon, the state patrol reported. He was arrested on Route 23 near Delaware.

existing majority of 34 or plurality of 36.

Of the 33 governorships at stake, including that in Maine which elected Sept. 14, the Republicans won 17, the Democrats 13, and Progressives one. Two were still in doubt—in Idaho and Wyoming. Counting holdovers, the Democrats now will have at least 23 governors, the Republicans, 22, and Progressives one.

Technically of course, the Democrats retained control of both houses of congress. However, dependable working majorities cannot be counted on by the administration at all times.

Rep. J. William Ditter of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee, in a statement issued at Philadelphia, viewed the party's house gains as resulting from a "public demand for greater efficiency and less politics by the national administration in the prosecution of this war."

The reelection of Senator A. B. (Happy) Chandler (D-Ky.) over Richard J. Colbert, Republican, had an aftermath in a charge by Dr. O. F. Hume, Republican national committeeman from Kentucky, that there was "ample evidence of wholesale fraud and corruption" in the contest. He called on senate investigators to look into it, especially in Harlan county.

1,000 slain yesterday. The Nazi air force bombed the city's defenses steadily in support of the ground operations.

"Southeast of Nalchik (central Caucasus) our troops fought violent engagements and our artillery dispersed concentrations of enemy tanks and infantry preparing for attack," the communique said. "The Germans suffered heavy losses. Seventeen German planes were shot down in air combat and by anti-aircraft fire."

In the older theater about Mozdok, 50 miles northeast of Nalchik, German attacks upon Red army positions were repulsed and the Russians were declared to have occupied an enemy strong point through a counter-attack.

The communique said Soviet troops continued to cut into the ranks of encircled invasion forces northeast of Tuapse. It reported that prisoners "describe enormous losses suffered by their troops."

Soldiers' Morale Best When He's Fighting

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Nov. 5—Home from the war today, Brig. Gen. Ludwig S. Conelly observed that a soldier's morale is best when he's "fighting or preparing to fight."

The 59-year-old general, who has been in command of thousands of Ohioans stationed "on an island somewhere in the South Pacific near the Solomons," is resting at his suburban Bedford home between assignments.

"The American soldier," he said in an interview, "wants to work. He would rather be kept busy than loafing. He likes hard jobs, and I have found that the morale of men is best when they are fighting or preparing to fight."

WHITE HOUSE SILENT

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5—The White House was silent today on the Republican gains in Tuesday's elections. Presidential Secretary Stephen Early was asked about the results and replied: "I have not talked to the President about the election, and I'm sure you would not be interested in my own views."

Kaiser Recruits Reach Yards Ready for Work

Men at work the first day of a new Kaiser ship. Ten days later it will be floating down the ways.

Ray Weller went west with Brown. He starts work at once as a shipfitter's helper.

Benjamin Brown, former real estate man, is now a scaler's helper in the paint shop.

(Third and last in a series on how new workers are transported and trained by Henry J. Kaiser.)

By JOHN GROVER
Wide World Features Writer

VANCOUVER, Wash. — New Yorkers recruited for the shipyards get a taste of Kaiser company production methods the minute they step off the train at these vast new ways.

Aboard the train they have been classified, assigned to specific jobs and dormitory quarters, fingerprinted and entered on company rolls. When the train arrives after four days traverse of the country, the men are split into numbered squads, each in charge of a uniformed company guard.

These guards route the recruits through the personnel department. Ten to the minute, the new workmen pass muster at the AFL union clearing desk, then file by a camera operated by one of the omnipresent, slack-suited women who do the lighter chores in the Kaiser operations.

Every Man Photographed.

Each man is "mugged" by the automatic camera that records his height and company number against a ruled background. The pictures are later printed on the large company button that each worker wears all his waking time.

After this processing in the personnel department, buses convoy the squads to Hudson House, the single men's dormitory within the shipyard grounds. Each man has his room number and is quickly established in quarters.

Hudson House is a series of bright, clean apartments. It is difficult to believe these dormitories were erected in a matter of days to accommodate the New York recruits. Clocks and calendars around Kaiser yards take an awful beating. Projects that consume months in peacetime are done in the time it formerly took to draw up contracts and blueprint the plans.

Spotless Dormitories.

Air-conditioned and spotless, the rooms in Hudson House accommodate two men. Each has a closet almost as large as the typical hall bedroom in the east. Top-quality springs and mattresses, subdued pastel walls and soundless linoleum floors give a restful air of quiet.

Women are on duty around the clock to make beds and clean the rooms. There is a master sheet of shifts in each dormitory, and the cleaning women work from that. Rooms are cleaned only when the occupants are at work.

Arrival times of the recruit trains are arranged so the men have several hours for a cleanup after the four-day coach trip before their first meal in the mess hall.

Usually the trains "dock" in the yards shortly after breakfast. Men assigned to the swing shift go to work the first day at 4:30 p. m., and the graveyard gang at 1 a. m. Those ticketed for day work report the following morning at 8 a. m.

Bonus For Night Workers.

Under the Kaiser system, swing shift workers get a 10 per cent bonus and work only 7½ hours, graveyard shift employees receive a 15 per cent bonus and are on the job only seven hours. Day workers pay for their normal hours by working a full shift at no extra pay. This bonus-hours system eliminates "beefs" over night work and keeps the plant operating at top capacity.

Under the Kaiser plan, men learn by doing. The recruits, most of them totally unfamiliar with shipbuilding methods, are assigned to foremen. Under the foremen are leaders who take the rookies in hand and instruct them in the simple processes that make up the Kaiser line-production system.

The whole basis of Kaiser record-breaking in heavy construction is breaking down the complex project into simple processes. New men are given a simple chore and become expert by repetition. The sum total of their efforts becomes a ship.

Within a matter of hours after arrival, the New Yorkers are absorbed into the vastness of the Kaiser plant.

"Hell, it's a cinch to work here," said Jack Hinklein after his first shift. "they've got things doped out to the last move, and anybody who can follow his nose can do a job here."

That may explain in part how they send ships into the water in ten days with steam up and ready to begin their wartime tasks.

EMPLOYMENT HERE LOWER IN OCTOBER

Decrease Is First Recorded in Year.

Industrial employment in Marion last month showed a decrease for the first time in a year, the monthly business bulletin of the Marion Chamber of Commerce, issued to members today, shows.

The report places the October employment total of 12 Marion industrial plants at 11,709 or 676 under the September total of 12,385.

This downward trend follows an announcement earlier in the week that about 2,000 construction workers at the Scioto Ordnance Plant had been laid off in recent weeks as various phases of the job neared completion.

Other business reports included in the Chamber bulletin include the following figures for October with comparable September statistics in parentheses:

Bank debits — $13,506,044.75 ($12,582,127.04).

Postal receipts—$16,811.15 ($15,078.23).

Automobile sales—8 new (11), two trucks (9) and 105 used cars (139).

Relief cases—115 (123).

WPA workers—13 (23).

Attention is called in the bulletin to arrangements for the annual dinner meeting of the Chamber Tuesday night at Hotel Harding.

EGYPT

such strategic points as Matruh, Halfaya Pass and Salum—all of which boast well fortified positions.

The defeat which the British suffered last summer, however, when they were driven back deep into Egypt, showed the difficulties of organizing an effective defense and halting a retreat under overwhelming pressure.

(Dispatches from Turkey quoted advices from Greece as saying that the Germans were rushing three or four divisions from the Russian front to Africa in an attempt to reinforce Rommel, four transports of Nazi soldiers were said to have passed through Athens enroute to embarkation points.

(The German radio said last night that the British had scored "local successes" but claimed Rommel had the situation in hand and declared the British had lost between 450 and 500 tanks in the action thus far.)

An important factor in favor of the allies now is the unquestioned superiority of their air forces.

Allied Planes Unopposed

British and American planes were reported virtually unopposed as they bombed and machine-gunned from low levels, and returning fliers told of enemy troops "scattering like cockroaches" under the attacks.

Scenes of utter destruction marked the path of the axis retreat, the airmen said.

"I never saw such destruction," declared Brig. Gen. A. C Strickland, chief of the bomber command of the Middle East unit of the U. S. army air forces, following his return from a personally-conducted bombing foray over the enemy rear lines.

"We swept over the road and saw it packed with transport," he related. "But every vehicle was stopped and everywhere there were tiny trails of dust where the crews were running into the desert. Every bomber in our formation turned and sailed down the road, spilling bombs on vehicles and men."

Sorority's Stamp, Bond Sale Reported

War stamps and bonds totaling $2,148.35 were sold last month at the Palace theater by members of Lambda Chi Omega sorority, George Planck, manager, announced today. During the month of November the stamp and bond booth in the lobby will be in charge of members of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

KO'S 12 AXIS TANKS

This unnamed sergeant from Forest Gate, London, member of British anti-tank unit participating in the new offensive against Rommel's forces in Egypt, claims to have knocked out 12 enemy tanks in one day.

Safety Razor Output Halted by WPB Order

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5—The war production board yesterday halted the manufacture of safety razors for civilian use, and put all razors and razor blades under strict production and distribution restrictions.

Production of safety razor blades next year will approximate 2,750,-000,000, a 20 per cent reduction from the record-breaking 1941 production, but an increase of 12 per cent over 1940.

WPB predicted the supply of blades for civilian use would be ample to meet all requirements in 1943. WPB estimated the restrictions of razors and razor blades would result in a saving of more than 80 tons of steel.

To the victor belongs the spoils. In this case, the spoils are cases of Japanese supplies, everything from machinery to candy, taken by the U. S. Marines on Guadalcanal. U. S. JURY DECIDES THAT KADENS IS INSANE

Desperado Who Shot at Crawford Co. Deputy Imprisoned.

Irwin Kadens, 33-year-old deserter, bandit and all-around desperado on trial in Cleve. Criminal court on a robbery charge, Wednesday was found insane and ordered committed to asylum for the criminal insane Menard, Ill. His crime record included firing on a Crawford county deputy sheriff last September when the deputy tried to question Kadens.

Taken before a jury of six men and six women last Monday, Kadens, once termed a "three-state crime wave" by J. Edgar Hoover, was on trial in connection with the attempted holdup of a currency exchange in Chicago's south side on Oct. 19. He was taken into custody by Patrolman Richard A. Nelson of the Chicago police department.

During opening trial proceedings Monday, Chief Justice John A. Sbarbaro, who presided for the trial, appointed two psychiatrists to examine Kadens. They were Dr. John J. Madden, dean of the neurology department of Loyola university, Chicago, and Dr. V. G. Urse, director of the Chicago hospital.

Appearing before the court Wednesday both specialists reported Kadens was not sane.

Immediately the jury called to try him on the robbery charge was impaneled and instructed to try him, instead, on his sanity. In five minutes the jury returned a verdict of insanity.

Judge Sbarbaro ordered Kadens to be committed to the psychiatry division at Menard, a walled-in section of the prison that is considered escapeproof.

DEWEY PREPARES TO ASSUME OFFICE

Sees Need for Streamlining New York Government.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 5—The Republicans prepared today to assume New York's administration reins with a full grip Jan. 1 with the pledge of Gov. Elect Thomas E. Dewey that he would streamline state government.

Dewey polled close to 200,000 votes more than the total for the Democratic candidate, John J. Bennett Jr., and the American Labor party candidate, Dean Alfange.

Dewey in his first interview following his election declared he would stress "good government."

"There is a great deal of streamlining to be done in the state government. That will require careful scrutiny of dozens of major administrative offices and their record of competence and public service. I have no idea if it can be completed by the first of January," he said.

Mayor LaGuardia charged that the Democratic state convention that nominated Bennett "was manipulated for the sole purpose of giving Democratic State Chairman James A. Farley "an opportunity to hit at President Roosevelt."

SECOND FLYNN ACCUSER TAKES WITNESS STAND

16-Year-Old Girl Tells of Trip on Actor's Yacht.

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 5—A 16-year-old Hollywood showgirl testified in a jammed court room yesterday that she was raped twice by movie actor Errol Flynn on a yacht trip last year.

Peggy LaRue Satterlee said Flynn invited her on a cruise Aug. 2, 1941. He entered her stateroom the next morning, she declared, and raped her as they anchored at Catalina island isthmus. In answer to questions by Deputy District Attorney Thomas Cochran, she said Flynn raped her again on the return trip.

It was the second day of testimony at a preliminary hearing on charges of statutory rape against Flynn and involving two teen-age girls. Betty Hansen, a 17-year-old blond from Lincoln, Neb., had testified Monday that Flynn had attacked her at the home of Fred McEvoy, wealthy British sportsman.

Miss Satterlee said Flynn knocked at her door, and then entered without waiting for an answer. He was attired in pajamas.

Some Good, Hearty Soup

By ALICE DENHOFF

A good, hearty soup is very satisfying fare at this time of year and is not enough trouble to be worth fussing about. Make the beginning of meal or the last of a good repertoire of soups is enough to give any woman a reputation as a cook. Today we are giving some of our favorite soup recipes.

Cream Shrimp Soup

First of a wonderful, quick shrimp soup that may be prepared ahead of time and reheated just before serving. Place one cup finely chopped celery and 4 sprigs celery tops in a saucepan. Add one sprig of parsley, 1 bay leaf, 6 peppercorns, 1 cup water and 4 whole cloves. Bring to boiling point, cover and simmer 15 minutes. Strain and add enough water to make 2 cups. Blend 4 tablespoons flour in saucepan. Add 1/4 cup milk and one cup fish stock; cook, stirring until thickened. Add shrimp, mustard and salt. Heat and serve.

Vegetable Cream Chowder

Want a recipe for an inexpensive but excellent winter time cream chowder? Serve with a sweet and a beverage, and make a splendid luncheon or supper menu that is guaranteed to please the hungry and enthusiastic. Brown 2 tablespoons minced onion, 2 tablespoons chopped celery and 1 clove garlic in 2 tablespoons butter or margarine. Add 2 cups diced raw potatoes, 1 cup diced carrots, 1 cup diced turnips, 1 cup diced celery, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 bay leaf, 1 cup boiling water and 1 cup tomato juice. Cover and cook 20 minutes. Add 2 cups milk, bring to boiling point and thicken with 2 tablespoons flour worked smoothly into 2 tablespoons butter or margarine. Serve hot with browned bread crumbs or croutons.

A variety of ingredients for garnishing will add much to soup. Hot crackers, either plain or toasted and buttered; croutons fried or oven-browned, or bread crusts dried in a slow oven until crisp are all nice as are hot toast strips, buttered popcorn or cheese straws.

Ravioli in a stick soup or dumplings in a chowder will help to make the soup the main dish. Poached eggs or grated cheese are often served in soup, both as a garnish and to reinforce the protein value.

Fish Chowder

Use left-over fish as the basis for an economical and nourishing fish chowder. Combine 2 diced raw potatoes, 2 cups boiling water, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, one bay leaf, and cook five minutes. Add one cup flaked fish (or 1/2 pound haddock). Reheat if the fish is cooked, or if uncooked, let simmer 10 minutes longer. Add 2 cups milk, bring to boiling point and thicken with one tablespoon flour worked smoothly into one tablespoon butter or margarine. Serve hot with browned bread crumbs or croutons.

A variety of ingredients for garnishing will add much to soup. Hot crackers, either plain or toasted and buttered; croutons fried or oven-browned, or bread crusts dried in a slow oven until crisp are all nice as are hot toast strips, buttered popcorn or cheese straws.

Dewey Comments On Accuracy of Gallup Forecast

NEW YORK, Nov. 5—In a statement of congratulations to George Gallup, director of the American Institute of Public Opinion, Thomas E. Dewey, Republican governor-elect of New York state, said yesterday.

"Congratulations on your phenomenal accuracy in predicting the New York state vote within a fraction of one per cent. I remember also your accuracy in 1938 in predicting the election vote within one half of one per cent when the tide went against me. Elections serve to focus attention to the reliability of your fact-finding organization. But election forecasts in my opinion, are only incidental to your great service in revealing the attitude of American voters on countless individual issues on which the public has no opportunity to express its views in the election booth."

The Institute predicted that Governor-Elect Dewey would receive 53 per cent of the vote cast in the state. Almost complete returns give him 52.7 per cent.

While the Institute called the New York election with 99.3-per accuracy, its samplings of the intent of the Republican governorship vote throughout the country proved to be at least 1.5 per cent under what it took to return to office.

Although the Institute estimated 37,000,000 votes to be cast with the correct published present returns indicate that the total will be only 35,000,000 and that the gap between the two figures was largely due to the influence of the soldier vote.

Fostoria School Wins Top Place in Scrap Campaign

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 5—Fields school of Fostoria, an elementary institution with only 143 pupils, won Ohio's Oct. 5-24 scrap drive for schools by salvaging 104.42 tons of metal, a per capital return of 1,460 pounds, the state department of education reported today.

Portsmouth's Holy Redeemer school was second with a per capita collection of 882 pounds, a total of more than 12 tons. Deshler High school, with 210 students, finished third with 90 tons, or 857 pounds per capita.

Aquanis High of Columbus, with an enrollment of 456, salvaged approximately 190 tons, or 835.2 pounds per student.

Pupils of the three top schools will select from their number the one who was most helpful in the campaign. This trio, together with the principal or teacher of the first place school, will christen a new Liberty ship.

Gov. Bricker, State Education Director Kenneth C. Ray and State Purchasing Agent Lee E. Pierson will select three names of prominent deceased Ohioans from among nominees submitted by the school children. The maritime commission will choose from these a name for the new Liberty ship.

CHICKEN-MUSHROOM POT PIE . . . Like mother makes.

Chicken-Mushroom Pot Pie

[illegible] fat, [illegible] chicken, 1 [illegible] can button mushrooms, 2 [illegible] carrots, 2 to 3 [illegible] white onions, cooked, 1 cup cooked peas.

Clean, wash and cut up chicken. Place in large kettle and cover with boiling water. Add [illegible] cover and cook slowly until tender. Add [illegible] and onions. Simmer [illegible] minutes. Remove chicken to covered dish. Drop prepared dumplings into broth, cover quickly and boil for ten minutes. Turn and continue to cook and boil for ten minutes more. Thicken broth with flour and water. Return chicken to kettle, season, add peas and pimientos and heat well. Serve chicken, broth and pie in large bowls or on platter. Serves six.

Dumplings

1 cup sifted enriched flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon shortening, 1 egg, ½ cup milk.

Sift into mixing bowl, sugar, baking powder, salt. Cut in shortening. Beat egg slightly and add milk. Stir the liquid into the flour to form a soft but not sticky dough. Turn out on floured board and roll into squares as desired. Drop gently dumplings into the pot and cook as directed above.

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE
Wide World Food Editor

When your soldier boy comes home on furlough this fall or winter, he will be looking for his favorite made-by-mother foods all the way from a snappy soup to a mouth-watering dessert, with some tempting snacks in between meals.

Baked Ham, glistening with honey and spices offers a fine main dish.

Select a ham weighing from 10 to 12 pounds. Scrub with a brush and place, fat side up, on a rack in an open baking pan. Do not add any water. Bake 30 minutes per pound. A 10 pound ham will need 5 hours in a moderately slow oven (325). Baste several times with drippings.

The ham is done when a fork will easily go through the thickest part. Remove from the oven and lift off the rind and any surplus fat. Mark (score) the ham [illegible] and [illegible] with whole cloves. Cover the ham with this glaze: Boil together 1 minutes, ½ cup boiling water, 2-3 cup honey, ½ cup red cinnamon candies, ½ teaspoon ground cloves, ½ cup orange juice and 3 tablespoons lemon juice. Baste the ham 30 minutes in moderate oven. Baste every 10 minutes with the honey mixture.

Apples are quite abundant and browned sugared slices go well with ham. Core and peel apples. Cut in crosswise slices. Brown apples in fat (4 tablespoons fat for 8 slices apples) heated in frying pan. Sprinkle apples with ½ cup sugar, 1 teaspoon cinnamon and ¼ teaspoon each cloves and nutmeg. Add ½ cup corn syrup, 1-2 cup water and 2 tablespoons lemon juice. Cook slowly until well glazed. You can also do pineapple slices and peach and apricot halves the same way.

If the son likes mince meat put some into apples and bake an hour in a moderate oven. This is a grand dessert when topped with a little whipped cream, ice cream or hard sauce.

A plastic food strainer has four [illegible] locking [illegible] points and edges to injure users' hands.

Second Group Of "Gray Ladies" To Be Formed Here

Women interested in the "Gray Ladies," the hospital and recreation corps of the Marion County Red Cross chapter, today were asked to register within a week in preparation for opening of a second course. One group of 25 Marion women has completed the course and is on duty at City hospital.

Any women 20 years of age or older may enroll for this branch of Red Cross service. Registrations will be taken any day at the Red Cross office on the second floor of the Y. M. C. A. building.

The "Gray Ladies," named in recognition of the color of the uniforms and veil, is not a part of the regular nursing service, Mrs. John Courtright and Mrs. Rex Kilbourn, co-chairmen, emphasized.

The women work at Marion City hospital at the request of and under supervision of the hospital staff members. Their chief service in the present days of overcrowded conditions and resultant increase of work for the staff is to relieve the regular nurses of many small tasks.

The "Gray Ladies" take the responsibility of the information desk, write letters for the patients, arrange the flowers in the sick rooms, distribute mail and magazines and, when requested, read to the patients.

To become a member of the service a woman must attend a course of 12 lectures, and must serve a probationary period of 24 hours' service at the hospital. To retain her membership she must serve in the hospital 50 hours a year.

At the end of the course of lectures the students are permitted to wear the gray uniform. The gray veil identifies them as having successfully completed the probationary period.

Rome Reports Axis Withdrawal After Heavy Loss

By The Associated Press

ROME (From Italian Broadcasts), Nov. 5 — Axis forces, having suffered "severe losses," have withdrawn to new lines in Egypt after violent dawn-to-dusk tank battles yesterday ranging over "the region between El Alamein and Fuka," the latter about 70 miles west of the old El Alamein front.

(Fuka, on the coastal highway, is more than one-fourth the distance from El Alamein westward to the Egypt-Libya frontier).

"Yesterday from the early hours of the morning until late at night, in the region between El Alamein and Fuka, fierce and bloody fighting took place between our tanks and infantry units and similar enemy forces," the war bulletin said.

"After the exceptionally bitter resistance, toward evening, men of the Italian and German armies withdrew to new lines to the west.

"Enemy losses have been heavy in men and material.

"Our losses have been severe."

The communique also mentioned "appreciable damage" to Tobruk and Benghazi—(the axis' chief forward ports for receiving reinforcements and supplies)—in air raids on the two Libyan harbors. Several persons were killed and numerous others injured in both places, it said.

"Greatly superior" allied air strength was reported but the communique said axis fighters engaged the allied planes "with extreme vigor" and destroyed 26 in two days.

LONDON

armies in Egypt will be followed by other allied offensives which will give relief to the embattled Russians, Sir Stafford Cripps, lord privy seal, told an audience of war workers today.

"This is not the only diversion we can or shall make to help our Russian allies," Sir Stafford, former ambassador to Moscow, declared. "As our strength and that of our American allies builds up other offensives will be started in other areas."

He said the Eighth army was "destroying German and Italian land and air forces which might otherwise be joining in the attack on the Soviet armies."

HARDING FAVORED TO WIN OVER SHELBY IN N. C. O. GAME

Coach Vic Dorris May Start All-Senior Team Against Visiting Whippets.

Possibility that all senior Harding team might start against Shelby's Whippets in a North Central Ohio conference game at Harding stadium Friday night was brought to light today as Coach Vic Dorris continued to practice a senior team against an undergraduate team in drills at the stadium practice field last night.

A senior team, powered by a backfield quartet including LeRoy Harvey, Harold Jenkins, Fred Ruhl and Calvin Scott, overpowered a team composed of sophomores and juniors in Monday night's practice. This backfield combination accounted for two touchdowns, while the senior defense completely bottled up the undergraduates' offense.

While neither Coach Dorris or Assistant Coach Joe Perich would go on record about the possibility of a seniors team there seems to be little doubt in the minds of teams scored to indicate clearly their intention.

Absent from last night's practice session was the veteran LeRoy Harvey, Harding's ace fullback and one of the leading backfield stars in this year's N. C. O. Coach Dorris said he expected Harvey to be ready for the important N. C. O. tussle.

On the basis of comparative scores in games played to date, Harding looms as an easy winner over the Whippets. The two squads have only two opponents in common and while Harding has won over both by wide margins, the Whippet eleven has pulled out a victor in one by a scant margin and lost to second by 40-0.

"This year's Shelby squad is one of the worst in over seven years. Only outstanding performer is a sophomore back by the name of DeVitto, who handles all of the passing and punting and a big share of the ball carrying assignments.

Eastern Fans Rate Governali As No. 1 Passer in Nation

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 — New York fans, inclined in the past to scorn teams that build their attack on passing as mere players of "gridiron basketball," are in the midst of a red-hot argument over passing. And they'll get a chance to decide for themselves this week-end when Notre Dame plays Army and Columbia faces Colgate.

The dispute over the relative passing ability of Notre Dame's Angelo Bertelli and Columbia's Paul Governali arose a few days ago when an Army coach told the local scribes that Army considered Bertelli the best passer in the country—far better than Governali. But Coach Lou Little of Columbia took exception.

"I'm not saying Bertelli isn't the best," said Lou, "but if he's better than Governali I'd be greatly surprised." In six games, pitching Paul has tried 111 passes and completed 56 for a .505 average and total gain of 1,021 yards. And he's done this with a line that doesn't afford him much protection.

Bertelli, much better protected, has gained only 621 yards on 40 completions out of 86 attempted passes for a pitching average of .465.

FAVORED 5 TO 2

NEW YORK, Nov. 5—Although he will be giving away a ten-pound weight edge, Ray Robinson is a 5 to 2 favorite to hang up his 38th consecutive professional victory when he fights Vic Delillo at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night.

BUCKS RETAIN BIG 10 OFFENSIVE LEAD AFTER BADGER LOSS

Ohio State Averages 362.5 Yards Per Game in Conference.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Nov. 5—Although Ohio State's Buckeyes suffered their first Big Ten defeat last Saturday, they continue to lead the conference in total offense, followed by the team that beat them, Wisconsin.

The Buckeyes have averaged 362.5 yards in conference play while the Badgers have made 200 yards a game through rushing and passing, the Big Ten Service bureau reported today.

The Badgers' game with Iowa Saturday night will be the 20th in a series started in 1891 . . . Wisconsin has won 13 and lost only six in the span . . . Earl M. Brown, Harvard end coach, will be among friends when the Crimson tangles with Michigan at Ann Arbor—he was a star high school athlete at Benton Harbor, Mich., and later won honors as end at Notre Dame.

Note to Minnesota—Indiana backs have returned 23 punts 328 yards . . . The Hoosiers have punted to opposing receivers only nine times, which were returned exactly 26 yards.

The first game between Northwestern and Illinois, in 1892, was called because of darkness with the score knotted 16-16.

Don Griffin, Illinois' fine junior back, plans to enter the naval air service in February.

Great Lakes beat Purdue, 27 to 0, in 1918, with a long forward pass from Paddy Driscoll, now Chicago Bears' assistant coach, to George Halas, Bears' head man who now is in the navy, starting the scoring for the Sailors . . . Bruce Smith will be the Bluejackets' biggest threat as they again meet Purdue Saturday . . . Smith has gained 265 yards by rushing and 282 by passing, more than a third of the Great Lakes' total offense.

Of the 27 touchdowns Ohio State has scored in six games, all but two have been by rushing . . . The Buckeyes have been drilled long and hard this week for their meeting with Pitt . . . Floodlights at the practice field were used for the first time.

SPORTS
THE MARION STAR

HE HURLS, KICKS FOR IRISH

Notre Dame's offensive star, Angelo (Bert) Bertelli, of West Springfield, Mass., is noted for his ability to throw that pigskin. He has pitched many touchdown passes for the Irish. But Bertelli also does the team's punting and ranks with the best in the midwest in that football art. Bertelli handles the ball on every play in the Irish T-formation this year.

Hardin - Simmons Ace Jeopardizes "Whizzer" White's Rushing Mark

Rolls Up 882 Yards in Five Games To Near Colorado Star's 1,121-Yard Record.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Nov. 5 — There's a comet down in Texas streaking along the ground to football history.

He is Rudolph (Little Doc) Mobley, a 155-pound Hardin-Simmons sophomore — the first fellow who has breezed along since 1937 to jeopardize Whizzer White's great rushing record.

White's mark of 1,121 yards in eight games with Colorado university was expected to survive for years to come. But the 5-foot-10-inch Mobley has uprooted 882 yards in five games—an average of 176 in each, compared with White's 140.

As a 135-pound prep star Mobley led the Texas inter-scholastic league in scoring with 174 points.

The comet burned up 275 yards last week in the Arizona game to add to his collection against such opposition as Baylor and Southern Methodist. A similar burst against West Texas State this Saturday might well boost him over White's total.

The Paducah, Tex., wraith, averaging nearly nine yards a play, is seventh in total offense, solely because of his running. He has done no passing.

Frankie Sinkwich, the Georgia peach, was passing and running away in the race for total offense honors. In seven games he had plucked 956 yards from the air and dug up 480 along the ground for 1,436—305 more than Columbia's second place Paul Governali had produced in six games.

Rams' Jacobs Averages 42 Yards in 33 Punts

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Nov. 5 — Rookie Jack Jacobs of Cleveland, the slim Indian from Oklahoma, stayed in the National football league just long enough to displace Sammy Baugh of Washington as the champion punter.

Jacobs averaged 46.6 yards on six kicks against Brooklyn last Sunday, leaving after the game to report to the naval air corps. He averaged 42.3 yards on 33 punts during his term with the Rams.

In team statistics, Green Bay had traveled 2,224 yards with 1,499 the product of a marvelous passing game and only 725 by rushing. The Bears, on the other hand, arrived at their 2,013 yard total by running for 978 yards and passing for 1,035.

SET THREE RECORDS

By The Associated Press

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — Coach Tom Siidham, of Marquette, hopes his 1942 passing attack will approximate last year's, which set three national collegiate football records—number of passes completed by one team in a season, 96; percentage of passes completed, .589; percentage of passes completed by an individual, .637, by Jimmy Richardson.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5—Herb (how I tried to get that kid) Kopf, Manhattan's football coach, puts forth what sounds like a sensible explanation for all the grid upsets this season. Herb claims that the mental attitude of the players is responsible for 90 per cent of such surprises; that a "break" early in a game can affect the outcome a lot more than most people think. This year, Kopf reasons, "upsets" are more likely to occur than usual because of the youth of the players. Squads are loaded up with sophomores and freshmen, who are more easily affected than players who have been through the mill.

Cleveland Barons Seek Western Hockey Lead

By The Associated Press

The Cleveland Barons go into tonight's tussle with the Buffalo Bisons for the leadership of the American hockey league's Western division as the only undefeated team in the circuit.

Cleveland and Buffalo are tied with six points apiece. The Hershey Bears, Eastern section leaders, were removed from the unbeaten class last night when they took a 3-1 thumping from the Pittsburgh Hornets.

Pittsburgh's victory, coupled with a 2-2 tie between the Indianapolis Capitals and New Haven Eagles, tightened up the Western race a bit. The Washington Lions broke into the victory column for the first time, beating Providence, 4-2.

BROWN GIVEN VOTE OF CONFIDENCE BY DOWNTOWN COACHES

Two Starting Linemen To Miss Pitt Game on Saturday.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 5 — The downtown quarterbacks — three gridiron knotworkers who make life happy or miserable for Ohio State football mentors — are still for Coach Paul Brown despite that stinging Wisconsin defeat.

They demonstrated that last night as Brown appeared before their club's weekly meeting to discuss the 17-7 walloping his Bucks took at Madison last Saturday.

Despite the defeat, which tumbled Ohio State from its No. 1 national gridiron rating and dropped it from the Western conference leadership, the downtowners rendered Brown a rousing ovation—an ovation which the Buck coach himself described as "a vote of confidence."

Reviewing the game, Brown said it was just one of those days when Wisconsin was "on" and Ohio was "off." But he offered no alibis. Instead, he called it "A good old fashioned licking."

Brown said he was more concerned with Ohio State's game here Saturday against the Pittsburgh Panthers than he was with the Wisconsin whipping.

He said the Bucks weren't too impressed with the Panthers' season record of two wins and four defeats, but were expecting a tough game.

Two regular Ohio linemen—left tackle Bill Willis and left end Dante Lavelli—won't be able to play, Brown said indicating that this would add to the tough going.

He said he planned to start Don Steinberg of Toledo at Lavelli's end, with Don McCafferty of Cleveland filling in for the big, Columbus Negro tackle.

NEW YORK'S RACING SETS NEW RECORDS

$165,730,267 Bet During 180-Day Meeting.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 — New York's regular racing season, which covered 180 days, ended yesterday at Empire City. Figures best prove that the sport weathered wartime and transportation troubles with flying colors, for records for big business toppled like tenpins.

Beginning tonight, Belmont park will be the scene of an extra seven day session for war relief, followed by the two-day united hunts meet.

A total of $165,730,267 passed through the tote machines over the regular 180-day span for a daily average of $920,723. Attendance reached 2,583,146, averaging 14,906 a day. The total breakage was $1,290,000.97. The total "take" (ten per cent of the betting and all the breakage), which is split between the state and the five tracks, amounted to $17,863,087.67, or $8,931,543.88 a side.

These figures top all 1941 marks.

Marion Tigers Battle Denton Service To Second 0-0 Tie

S. O. P. Gridders Miss First Half Scoring Chances; To Play Charity Game in Canton Nov. 15.

The Marion Tigers and the Columbus Denton Service semi-professional football teams battled to a scoreless tie last night at Harding stadium. It was the second meeting between the two teams. The first game, played here two weeks ago in a sea of mud and a steady downpour of rain, also ended in a 0-0 tie.

Plans for a third game between the two teams are now under consideration. George Baum, manager of the Tigers, announced after last night's game that a charity game may be arranged for Sunday, Nov. 15 at Canton under auspices of a Stark county service club.

The Scioto team was within scoring range three times in the first half, but each time the Marion offense bogged down. The Tigers' deepest drive carried all the way to the Columbus 7. The potential scoring opportunity was set up when Don Cook's kick was fumbled by the Columbus safety man. King Keller and one of the other Scioto linemen made the recovery on the Columbus 7. Three line plays were stopped and the Marions elected to try for a field goal. Guard Charles Mauk's kick was blocked by a Columbus end and recovered by the Columbus team on their own 22.

John Edington, former Harding High star and a professional baseball player during the summer months, suffered a bad ankle injury in a second quarter scrimmage. He was removed from the game and team officials last night said that he would be taken to the ordnance plant field hospital today for an X-ray examination.

A minute before the end of the first half a fumble by Nick Cafagno was recovered by Columbus on the Marion 3. In two plays Marion pushed the Dentons back one yard. On the third play Halfback Neupoff fumbled on an attempted off tackle smash. He recovered the ball without loss of ground and before the fourth play was in motion the half ended.

The only attempt to score in the third quarter followed a fumble by Marion's Clayton Harper. Recovery was by Columbus on the Marion 26. Two line plays and one pass failed to gain and Galbraith's attempted field goal was wide and low.

After the unsuccessful kick the Tigers took over on their own 30 and in 10 plays pushed all the way to the Columbus 15, a march of 65 yards during which the Tigers chalked up three first downs. Featuring the drive was runs of 17 and 24 yards by Howard Hodges. Three line plays failed to gain and the Marions elected to kick. Mauk, kicking from the 27-yard stripe, got off a wobbly kick which went wide of the uprights.

Both teams took to the air in futile attempts to score in the fourth quarter.

King Keller, who won mythical league and state honors as a scholastic gridder, grabbed the spotlight for his brilliant defensive play. Captain and signal caller Keller plays center on offense and is a line backer on the defense. Other standouts in the Marion line were Frank Cafagno who stopped repeated attempts around his left end post, and Guard Martin Lewis. In the Tiger backfield Howard Hodges, by virtue of his third quarter spark, was the Tigers' No. 1 backfield performer. Nick Cafagno and Gene Childs, both former scholastic stars, also played brilliantly in the Marion backfield.

Last night's game was a repetition of previous Tiger games in that the ordnance plant gridders demonstrated outstanding defensive power but lacked scoring punch.

Can Recall Ration Cards

Mr. Walker said the rationing program is "mileage rationing," not gasoline rationing, and warned that rationing cards are not the property of the motorist and may be re-called by the government if the motorist does not comply with five basic rules:

1. Drive 35 miles an hour.

2. Never abuse tires. (Failure to re-cap in time is tire abuse).

3. Have in possession only five tires. (If have six, receive no rationing book. Includes tires which may surround flower beds or be used as swings under a tree. These tires now belong to the government.

4. List serial numbers of all tires when registering for basic rationing.

5. Have tires inspected at official inspection station at regular periods. (Inspection need not be made before registration. Must be made every four months, starting Jan. 1.)

Arrests for speeding on the highway are reported to the rationing boards which have the right to call in the rationing book and deny further gas rations if the driver has endangered a single ounce of vital rubber.

"A" Books

The "A" book for passenger cars provides 240 miles of driving a month and will mean 2,880 total miles of driving, based on 15-miles-per gallon, until the expiration of the book on July 21, 1943, the expiration date based on the rationing program in the eastern states. Owners of motorcycles will receive "D" books, based on the same restrictions which apply to passenger cars. The "A" books at present represent four gallons a week but the gallonage can be changed at any time.

For the supplemental cards, "B" for occupational travel up to 470 miles a month and "C" for over 470 miles, the applicant must show:

1. A participation in a good faith ride-sharing arrangement with three or more persons, all of whom must sign the application.

2. That such ride-sharing is not feasible and there are no reasonably adequate means of transportation.

It was brought out that in a share-the-ride arrangement all cars of all men involved must be used and that each man in the arrangement who has a car must get a rationing card to be used in an exchange of rides.

Although every registered owner of a passenger car will receive "A" cards in the basic registration, if the owner applies for a supplemental card the rationing boards in considering the request must adhere to the regulation that 150 of the 240 miles a month in the rationing book are for occupational driving and 90 miles are for church-going or other such travel. If an "A" book registrant does not apply for a supplemental book he or she may use the gasoline as desired.

Basis of Ration

Four key factors will determine the ration motorists will receive:

1. The applicant's occupation.

2. Mileage required for the occupation.

3. That a good faith group riding arrangement has been entered into.

4. That no group riding is possible and public transportation is inadequate.

To be eligible for a "B" book the applicant must show that he is:

1. Driving more than 150 miles a month for occupational purposes.

2. In a ride-sharing group to carry other passengers to and from work regularly and travels more than 150 miles a month for occupational purposes.

If a person drives 550 miles a month on occupational work he is not eligible for more than a "B" book, since 150 miles of occupational driving are included in the "A" book.

Transportation and rationing committees were warned that they must give the most careful consideration to any application for a "C" book.

Warns Against Abuse

"Any abuse of the gasoline privilege will draw public opinion that certainly will cause a lot of investigation," Mr. Walker said.

He said it would be the duty of the industrial transportation committees to fill every car going to and from work, if at all possible, and to see that every car is used regularly in the share-the-ride program.

"You have every right to reject applications for supplementary gasoline," he told the committees. "Please see that the reasons for rejecting the application are filed with the rationing board to become a part of the permanent record."

At the close of the meeting he answered general questions about the rationing program.

These Are U. S. Inflation Fighters

Members of the Economic Stabilization Board who will act to control living costs.

By ALEXANDER R. GEORGE
Wide World Features Writer

WASHINGTON—Two Republican business leaders, the heads of two large farmer organizations, the chieftains of the two big labor federations and eight high-ranking government officials will help Economic Czar James F. Byrnes control living costs.

Members of the Economic Stabilization Board, they advise Byrnes on measures to regulate civilian purchasing power, prices, rents, wages, profits and rationing in order to prevent dangerous inflation.

Economic Director Byrnes, recently justice of the United States Supreme Court and formerly senator from South Carolina, is one of the capital's ablest troubleshooters. Keen, experienced and tactful, he was rated the administration's most effective handler of legislation in the senate.

Business Representatives

Business representatives on the board are Eric A. Johnston, 45, progressive - minded president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, and Ralph E. Flanders, 62, mechanical engineer-executive of Vermont.

Johnston, who heads ceramic and electric plants in Spokane, Wash., has worked with government officials on war production problems. He advocates labor-management committees to settle disputes.

Flanders, head of a machine company in Springfield, Vt., was administrator of machine tool priorities in the OPM. He is an authority on economic and technical problems.

Familiar also with business management problems is Board Member Jesse Jones, secretary of commerce. The big Texan has loaned millions of the government's dollars to thousands of citizens.

Two-Farm Spokesmen

Farm representatives are Edward A. O'Neal, 66-year-old Alabaman who is president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, and James G. Patton of Colorado, 39-year-old head of the National Farmers' Union.

O'Neal has powerful influence with the farm bloc in congress. He advocated higher prices for farm products against the opposition of President Roosevelt.

Young Patton's organization is composed chiefly of farm tenants and small farm operators. Frequently on the other side of the fence from O'Neal, he has supported the administration in parity revision and other farm controversies.

Interested also in the farm angle of economic control is Claude Wickard, secretary of agriculture, an Indiana "dirt farmer."

Organized labor representatives are William Green, veteran president of the American Federation of Labor, and Philip Murray, head of the C. I. O.

Murray and Green, both former miners, have cooperated with the administration on most questions. Green has pledged A. F. of L. backing of the stabilization program. Murray withheld comment on wage and price control pending developments.

Miss Perkins On Board

Concerned also with economic measures affecting labor is Miss Frances Perkins, serving her third term as secretary of labor.

Three board members are especially interested in seeing that the program keeps the nation's finances from getting too far off keel. They are Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau, Director of the Budget Harold Smith and Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board Marriner S. Eccles.

Leon Henderson, head of OPA will supervise putting ceilings on prices and rents and Donald M. Nelson will have his say as to the effect of economic stabilization measures on the war production effort.

CORN PRICE RISE PULLS GRAINS ALONG

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Nov. 5 — Corn prices rose 2 cents a bushel today to the best quotations for a month, pulling other grain values higher in sympathy.

Buying of the principal feed was attributed largely to professional traders covering previous short sales and to industries and distillers. The market's strength was associated with diminished receipts recently and broad commercial demand, both due to previous price declines, and to indications that lake movement of corn may expand before the navigation season ends.

REPORT PROFIT

By The Associated Press

Provision for federal taxes in the recent period was on the basis of the 1942 revenue act, the company setting aside $10,585,100 compared with $6,511,139 in the first three quarters of last year.

STOCKS GAIN BULLISH SIDE

News Is Encouraging But Traders Remain Somewhat Cautious.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 5—Mixed tendencies prevailed in today's stock market despite a generally bullish news background.

Wall Steet still was optimistic over the elections. War bulletins from Egypt, the Solomons and Russia were viewed as encouraging. On the other hand there was some liquidation to establish losses and profits for income tax purposes.

Transfers were around 600,000 shares.

Sears Roebuck enjoyed a belated flurry and jumped a point to a new top for the year. Continental motors was lively at best levels for 1942. Douglas Aircraft, ex-dividend, got back part of its Wednesday's loss. U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and Crucible stiffened after mid-day.

Lacking rising power were Du Pont, Boeing, Glenn Martin, Westinghouse, Kennecott, Eastman Kodak, Standard Oil (N. J.) and Phelps Dodge.

Scrap Rubber Fire Blamed on Two Boys

By The Associated Press

AKRON, O., Nov. 5—Two boys were blamed today for a fire that swept through a three-acre area piled 20 feet high with old tires, causing a scrap rubber loss estimated at $10,000.

The rubber, government property collected in the latest salvage drive, was piled in the B. F. Goodrich Co.'s scrap yards.

Fire Chief Frank Vernotzky said Goodrich policemen informed him they had chased two boys from a corner of the scrap pile shortly before the fire was discovered.

Pitfalls of Love

By ADELE GARRISON

THE shifty-eyed man from the Lansfield kitchens looked questioningly from my father to the hotel manager. Watching closely I could detect no signal given him by Milner, and the man said a bit sullenly, 'How about this? You're my boss, you know.'

"You haven't a very good way of showing that you realize that," Milner rebuked him, evidently still smarting from the man's disrespectful epithet. 'However, it is all right to tell Mr. Spencer anything you know about this."

The man hesitated, then looked slyly at Milner.

"You're not going to like this very well," he said.

"That is beside the question," the hotel manager told him. "Get on with your story."

"Well," the man began with apparent reluctance, "you remember how you bawled me out yesterday for not paying better attention to my orders."

Gives an Excuse

"I remember perfectly," Milner said coldly. "You richly deserved the rebuke."

"Oh, I did, did I?" the man said truculently. "You didn't know, nor care, that I hadn't had any sleep in thirty-six hours, account of a sick little kid at home."

"I'm sorry to hear that," the manager said coolly, "but we cannot take your family misfortunes

The Stars Say—

For Friday, Nov. 6

THE AUGURIES point to an important coming to life of an old congested or crystallized state of affairs, with a decisive march onward in the direction of stabilizing and giving security to the fortunes and real possessions. It is a time to carefully formulate and systematize plans and objectives toward this end, as there may be some vague or confusing states of mind to cope with, also dangers from fraud, imposition or emotionalism. With proper forethought and discretion there should be enduring benefits, with much personal gratification, in home and intimate affairs.

Those whose birthday it is should prepare for a year of solid and enduring good fortune, following upon a period of long-thwarted ambitions or other static or crystallized conditions. This should be done by a careful and systematic formulation of plans, with attention to details and future prospects. Logic and reason should hold sway against emotional, impulsive and ill-considered or vague moves. This might mean loss, theft, imposition or some strange sort of adventure, especially while traveling. Domestic, social and affectional affairs flourish.

A child born on this day should have sound principles and good judgment and be endowed with deep intellect, although at times disposed to act on impulse or emotionalism, to its detriment.

YOUR HEALTH

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Keeping Mentally Fit

KEEPING fit is a matter of many factors, and we never know which one is going to be important. Sometimes one is the most important, and sometimes another. Sometimes we are especially conscious of the need for attention to our digestion, sometimes of the need for adequate sleep, sometimes of the need for exercise, sometimes of the need for a change of scene, sometimes of the need for a change of occupation, sometimes of the need for a change of companions, sometimes of the need for a change of food, sometimes of the need for a change of habits.

In such cases as these we are dealing with the mind. I am inclined to think mental hygiene takes first place.

I do not quite mean that, although mental hygiene is one of the most important factors in keeping fit. I mean that the effects of what they eat, see or hear and are reacting on and by the mind — and that includes the majority of us. For a period, the effect on mind that are not quite stable by the need, gloom and contagion and ugliness of the minds are triggered at times by what is going on around us. How much the impact of these events affect those who were never designed for great responsibility or intense thinking.

An editorial writer or a responsible statesman has talked over his message with colleagues who are as stable, penetrating and judicial as himself. He often has not thought or has no conception of how that message will affect a less balanced personality.

I am not suggesting that the editorials or the pronouncements cease, but that many of us should not read or listen.

I see it about me all the time, and it is increasing. I know a man who operates well in a steady small job—small but necessary. He is about 50 years old, but his intellect is that of a child of 10. He is unfortunately where he can turn on a radio all the time. He is at the war news, morning to night. And his mental equipment is such that his efficiency in his job has fallen about 75 per cent.

I don't believe anybody can stand more than one newscast a day. Not more than one political commentator. You don't have to read all of them, you know. If this routine disturbs you go back to Dickens and Dumas and Mark Twain and see what they said.

A neurologist in an Eastern city told me that after the bombing of Cologne his office was filled with jittery people, some of whom had not been there for years.

Give up the war news entirely if you have to. Read Clendening's columns. I always soothe you down. Sometimes I put you to sleep.
